SUGGESTIONS TO AUTHORS AND EDITORS

This STYLE MANUAL is intended to facilitate Government printing. Careful observation of the following suggestions will aid materially in expediting publication and reducing printing expenditures. As a general rule, copy will be printed in conformity with this STYLE MANUAL.

Copy should be carefully edited in accordance with the style here laid down before being sent to the Government Printing Office. Changes on proof sheets add greatly to the expense and delay the work.

Legible copy, not faint carbon copies, must be furnished. This is most essential for copy in foreign languages and copy containing figures.

Copy should be sent flat, with the sheets numbered consecutively, and typewritten, if possible, on one side of the paper only. If both sides of reprint copy are to be used, a duplicate must be furnished if available.

To avoid mutilation of copy, each page should begin with a paragraph.

Tabular matter should be written on sheets separate from the text, as it is handled separately during composition.

Proper names, signatures, figures, foreign words, and technical terms should be written plainly and verified.

Manuscript and typewritten copy in a foreign language should be marked accurately to show capitalization, punctuation, accents, etc.

Photographs, drawings, etc., for illustrations should accompany the manuscript, each bearing the name of the publication in which it is to be inserted and the figure or plate number. The proper place for each text figure should be indicated on the copy by inserting its number and title.

A requisition for work containing illustrations must be accompanied by a letter certifying that the illustrations are necessary and relate entirely to the transaction of public business (U. S. C., title 44, sec. 118). The total number of illustrations and the processes of reproduction desired should also be indicated. Instructions should be given on the margin of each illustration if enlargement or reduction is necessary.

If a publication is composed of several parts, a scheme of the desired arrangement must accompany the first installment of the copy.

Samples should be furnished if possible. They should be plainly marked, showing whether they illustrate the desired type, size of type page, paper, trim, lettering, or binding; but they will not be considered as style for composition if they conflict with the rules in this STYLE MANUAL.

All corrections should be made on first proofs submitted, as later proofs are intended for verification only. All corrections must be indicated on the "R" set of proofs, and only that set should be returned to the Government Printing Office.

Corrections should be marked on the margins of a proof sheet opposite the indicated errors, not by writing over the print or between the lines. All queries on proofs must be answered.

Corrections in proofs read by authors or department readers must be indicated as follows:

- ⊙ Period.
- , Comma.
- Hyphen.
- : Colon.
- ; Semicolon.
- ⌘ Apostrophe.
- “ ” Quotations.
- Em quadrat.
- $\frac{1}{m}$ One-em dash.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS

6-pt. ital. caps

d.c. It does not appear that the earliest printers had any method of correcting errors before the form was on the press. The learned The learned correctors of the first two centuries of printing were not proofreaders in our sense; they were rather what we should term office editors. Their labors were chiefly to see that the proof corresponded to the copy, but that the printed page was correct in its latinity, ~~that the words were there~~, and that the sense was right. They cared but little about orthography, bad letters or purely printers errors, and when the text seemed to them wrong they consulted fresh authorities or altered it on their own responsibility. Good proofs in the modern sense, were ~~not~~ possible until professional readers were employed men who had first a printer's education, and then spent many years in the correction of proof. The orthography of English, which for the past century has undergone little change, was very fluctuating until after the publication of Johnson's Dictionary, and capitals, which have been used with considerable regularity for the past 80 years, were previously used on the miss or hit plan. The approach to regularity, so far as we have, may be attributed to the growth of a class of professional proofreaders, and it is to them that we owe the correctness of modern printing. More errors have been found in the Bible than in any other one work. For many generations it was frequently the case that Bibles were brought out stealthily, from fear of governmental interference. They were frequently printed from imperfect texts, and were often modified to meet the views of those who published them. The story is related that a certain woman in Germany, who was the wife of a printer, and had become disgusted with the continual assertions of the superiority of man over woman which she had heard, hurried into the composing room while her husband was at supper and altered a sentence in the Bible, which he was printing, so that it read Narr instead of Herr, thus making the verse read "And he shall be thy fool" instead of "And he shall be thy Lord." The word not was omitted by Barker, the King's printer in England in 1632, in printing the seventh commandment. He was fined £3,000 on this account.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

PREPARING COPY

The first duty of copy preparers is to mark those things which are not readily understood and to indicate headings, indentions, dashes, new pages, new odd pages, and such other matters as are necessary to give the completed book a good typographic appearance. They must indicate point size and type series on copy, and whether matter is to be leaded or double-leaded, etc.; verify folio numbers; and plainly indicate references, footnotes, cut-ins, etc. Unless otherwise marked, text copy will be set in 10-point solid and tables in 6-point solid. Two-point rules will be used in tables unless otherwise specified.

It is not absolutely necessary to mark again anything that has been plainly indicated at the beginning of a sheet, as the preparation is to be followed if the same thing should appear more than once on the sheet; but on copy marked "Fol." the preparation must be carried throughout.

Copy that is ordered to be kept clean and returned intact must be marked as lightly as possible, so that erasures may be easily made.

Copy preparer's instructions, which accompany each job, are written to cover the general style and certain peculiarities or deviations from style. These instructions must be followed. The copy preparer must not deviate from the style laid down in this manual unless authorized to do so by the Chief Copy Preparer.

The following rules apply to all copy:

Abbreviations.

In marking abbreviations to be spelled, copy preparers must show what the spelled form should be, unless the abbreviations are common and not susceptible of two constructions.

Capitalization.

Unusual forms of capital and lower-case letters must be indicated.

Date lines, addresses, and signatures.

Copy preparers must mark caps, small caps, italic, abbreviations, and indentions; also indicate where lines are to be broken if necessary.

Decimals and common fractions.

In figure columns containing decimals or common fractions preparers must indicate at the top of each folio of a continued table the "clear" necessary to preserve proper alinement. The "clear" indicated for decimals does not include the bear-off.

Folioing and stamping copy.

Folio numbers should be placed in the upper right-hand corner, preferably half an inch from the top.

All other stamping—type size, measure, etc.—should be placed in the upper left-hand corner.

Divided tables that have to be cut or that continue on more than one sheet of copy must be folioed down the first divide to the end of the table and continue on the next divide to the end.

Footnotes and references.

Footnotes and references, in general (see p. 143), run consecutively from 1 to 99 and then begin with 1 again. Copy preparers must see that references and footnotes are plainly marked and indicate if they are to be set in half or third measure. On a job that is not completed the last footnote number must be given to the Chief Copy Preparer, who will enter it on his copy book, so that there will be no question as to the next footnote number. (See Page and stone revising, p. 10; Reference marks and footnotes, p. 143.)

If a reference is repeated on another page, it should carry the original footnote; but to avoid repetition of a long note, the copy preparer may use the words "See footnote 3 (6, 10, etc.) on p. —" instead of the entire footnote.

Headings.

The type to be used for all headings must be marked—case number or size of type, indicating whether italic, small caps, or caps and small caps.

Pick-up.

The jacket number of a job from which matter is to be picked up must be indicated, and the copy preparer must ascertain whether pick-up is available. Uniform style must prevail on new matter and on pick-up.

Signs, symbols, etc.

All signs, symbols, dashes, superiors, etc., must be plainly marked. Names of Greek letters must be written, as they are frequently mistaken for italic or symbols.

The symbols A1, C1, T1 are sometimes mistaken for A1, C1, T1 in typewritten matter. Copy preparers must indicate whether the second character is a letter or a figure.

COMPOSITION

Compositors and operators must study carefully the rules governing composition. Failure to do this will show plainly on proofs.

In setting inserts on a pick-up or on a proof, the compositor or operator must indicate with a pencil what portion was actually reset.

Every precaution must be taken to prevent the soiling of proof sheets, as it is necessary for the reviser to see clearly every mark on the margin of a proof after it has been corrected.

Corrections queried in a ring must not be made, as such queries are intended for the author.

After a proof is read the first time, if a word or line is pied or a drop-out occurs, the workman must call attention to it in writing on the proof sheet. If a proof sheet is not available, the type involved must be placed feet uppermost when returned to position. This direction is intended for all who handle type.

In correcting matter set on the linotype machine, care must be taken to insert corrected type slugs in their proper places and to remove only such type slugs as are necessary. Matter must be "run down" to see that lines have not been duplicated, transposed, or eliminated. If the corrector is in doubt, he must read the slugs.

READING AND COPY HOLDING

Foremen of composing sections must see that the copy preparer's instruction sheet is sent to the Proof Section with the first installment of each job.

Readers must consult the copy preparer's instruction sheet.

Speed is desirable, but accuracy is of first importance.

The reader should see that the rules governing spacing, division of words, and good printing generally have been observed. The reader who passes bad spacing will be held at fault.

If the reader detects inconsistent and erroneous statements, made by the writer through lapse of memory or slip of the pen, it is his duty to correct them. He must know, not guess, that they are errors, and he must be prepared, if called upon, to vindicate by recognized authority the soundness of his correction. If he does not know, he must query.

If the grammatical construction of a sentence or clause is questioned by a reader and it seems desirable to change the form, he must indicate the proposed correction, add a query mark, and enclose all in a ring. If a statement of fact is thought erroneous or doubtful, he must underscore the matter in doubt and write "Author verify" enclosed in a ring in the margin. It is not enough to write only a query in the margin: the reason for the query must be clearly shown. If there is little doubt, the correction should be made, but a query enclosed in a ring must be written beside the correction to call the author's attention to it.

A query appearing on copy must be carried to the author unless readers can definitely answer it.

Proofs that are not clearly printed or are in any manner defective must be called to the attention of the deskman.

The manner in which correction marks are made on a proof is of considerable importance. Straggling, unsymmetrical characters, disconnected marks placed on the margins above or below the lines to which they relate, irregular lines leading from an incorrect letter or word to a correction, large marks, marks made with a blunt pencil, indistinct marks, and a frequent use of the eraser to obliterate marks hastily or incorrectly made are all faults to be avoided.

In reading proof of wide tables, the reader should place the correction in white space as near as possible to the error, thus aiding all who have occasion to handle the proof afterward. He should obliterate entirely a broken or defective figure and rewrite it in a ring. He should not mark transpositions in little-known words or in figures, but write the letters or figures in the order in which they are to appear.

In marking errors in display type the case number must be indicated.

Readers must draw a ring around footnote references in proof, as an aid to the maker-up.

On discovering evidence of any wrong-font matrices readers must immediately inform the referee.

Readers must not make important changes in indentions or tables without consulting the referee.

The marks of the copy preparer must be given consideration by all, as he is in a position to know more about the peculiarities of a job than one who reads but a small portion of it.

Any mark which will change the proof from the copy as prepared must be enclosed in a ring.

All instructions on copy must be carried on proof sheets by readers.

Folios of copy must be "run" by the copy holder and verified as marked on proof.

In reading copy an unnecessarily loud tone of voice must be avoided. Short words are as important as long ones and should be pronounced distinctly. Plurals will be clearly sounded, and names of persons or geographic designations pronounced distinctly or read by letters.

MAKING-UP

Before beginning his work the maker-up must ascertain the length of type page and style of folios to be used. He should also know whether work is to be printed from type or plates. If the work is to be printed from type or flat plates, it must be made up with a 10-point slug at bottom within the gage, but it can be made a flush page if necessary; if from curved plates, no flush pages should be made, the longest to be 4 points shorter than the gage.

If it is found necessary to make a page a few lines short, the facing page should be of approximately equal length if the text permits.

A blank or sink of 72 points should be left at the head of each new odd or even page of octavo (document) or greater depth; pages with a depth of from 6 inches to octavo will carry a 60-point sink; pages less than 6 inches, 48 points.

If top center folio is used, the folio on a new page must be placed in the center, at the bottom, enclosed in parentheses.

Contents, lists of illustrations, the preface, or any other matter that makes a page in itself should be placed 12 points or more nearer the top than the bottom, the difference depending upon the length of page. (See p. 11, par. 14, for standard make-up of Government publications.)

In "cleared" indexes the words being cleared must be repeated at the top of the column or page.

Continued heads over tables and leader work must be condensed into one line if possible.

Footnote references should not be repeated in box heads or in continued lines over tables unless special orders are given to do so, but they must be repeated after continued lines in stubs.

Six-point notes above tables should be enclosed in brackets and are not repeated with continued heads unless they are needed on each page for the sake of clarity.

For arrangement of footnotes, see page 11, paragraph 16.

Unless other type is indicated, legends for illustrations should be set in 6-point roman, lower-case.

Legends and explanatory matter with illustrations are set full measure unless text is to be run at the side or unless the illustration is wider than full measure.

Legends (for illustrations that run lengthwise of the page), broad tables, etc., must read up.

In making up a page of two or more columns with an illustration more than one column in width, the text should be broken so that it will read from above the illustration to the same column below. If a table occurs under the same conditions, the text should double up above it.

IMPOSITION

A page is considered the unit of a signature, the two companion pages the unit in imposition. Whether the imposition is from the outside or inside, a long or a broad form, work and turn or sheet-wise, these companion pages are never separated; their position is determined by the fold.

To illustrate further the fact that these companion pages are the unit of imposition, it will be found when determining margins that these two pages are always printed in the center of the untrimmed sheet, as regards outer margins, when it is divided into halves, quarters, eighths, or sixteenths. For example, a sixteen is to be made up to 24- by 38-inch paper, side wire-stitched, the half of which the 24-inch way is 12 inches. The width of the two type pages, say, is 48 ems of 12-point, or 8 inches, and the back is 10 ems of 12-point, or 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches, leaving 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches to be used as margin, one-half of which is to go on the outside of each printed page (1 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches, or 7 ems of 12-point), making 12 inches in all.

The other two companion pages that go to make up the quarter of the sixteen are likewise printed in the center of the quarter sheet, which is 19 inches, one-half of the 38-inch way. It will thus be observed that two pages were used to get the outside margins and another multiple of two (four) to get the bottom margins.

Margins should be governed by the trimmed book and not by the untrimmed sheet. The gutter or back margin should be such that it will bring the pages nearly in the center of the open printed book without using fractional parts of 12 points, putting the excess space in the outer margins, except in books that are to be side-stitched with wire, in which 12 points additional per page must be allowed for space that will be taken up. The margins should be so planned that when the book is delivered from the binder the back margin is less than the outside. In adopting the type page and trim allowances stated herein, the economical use of stock has been considered. The type page has been made as large as possible. The top margin of the trimmed book should be at least 3 ems of 12-point and the bottom margin at least 4 ems of 12-point. The outside margin should be at least 1 em of 12-point greater than the back but not as wide as the bottom margin.

If a running head is used, the head margin should be the same as the back; but if a center folio is used, that line and the slug below it should be counted as part of the margin.

If a book makes less than 80 pages (weight of paper to be considered) and is not to be sewed, it should be imposed as an inset for saddle stitching, with gutter margin same as a sewed book.

REVISING

Galley revising.

The importance of revising proofs cannot be overestimated. Although a reviser is not expected to read proof, it is not enough for him merely to follow the marks found on the proof sheet. He should be alert to detect errors and inconsistencies and must see that all corrections have been properly made and that words or lines have not been transposed or eliminated by the compositor in making the corrections. (See third paragraph under Page and stone revising.)

A reviser must not remodel the punctuation of the readers or make any important changes. If he thinks that an important change should be made, he must submit the proposed change to the foreman for decision.

In the body of the work new pages must be properly indicated on the proof sheet. Tables of contents, letters of transmittal, lists of illustrations, the text proper, all matter following half titles (except parallel tables), and indexes must begin on new odd pages unless instructions to the contrary are given.

All instructions on proofs must be transferred to revises.

All queries made by the author or copy preparer and carried or made by the readers must be carefully transferred to the revises.

Each paragraph in a proof containing an alteration that makes one or more overruns should be reread.

Revising must be done with reasonable dispatch, but accuracy must not be sacrificed for speed.

Corrector's slug number must be written on revise proof.

Page and stone revising.

Page and stone revising require great diligence and care. Not only must the reviser see that the rules governing the work of those who precede him have been followed, but he must be on the alert for a multiplicity of points not coming within their sphere.

Special care must be exercised in revising linotype matter. It is necessary to read the entire line in which corrections have been made, to see that the line has been inserted in the proper place, and to see that the lines above and below it have not been disturbed. If it appears that a correction has not been made, the reviser should carefully examine each line on the page to see if the correction was made in the wrong place or if lines have been transposed.

The following rules must be carefully observed:

1. See that the proof sheets are clean and clear; send for another proof if they are not.

2. See that galley proofs run consecutively and, in continuous make-up, that the matter on the galleys connects before beginning the page revise.

3. See that page folios are consecutive, that running heads are correct and uniform, and that the proper signature mark is correctly placed. If an error is found in running heads or in signature marks, notify the Chief Reviser immediately, so that the correction may be made in other forms or pages of the same job.

4. Revise carefully, observe connection between pages, take care that continued and repeated lines are free from errors, and carry all unanswered queries if the proof goes again to the author; if not, see that all queries are answered.

5. If a revise is not properly corrected or is not reasonably free from errors, call for another correction and proof (stating number wanted) and destroy all duplicates.

6. Be on the lookout for drop-outs, doublets, and transpositions.

7. Read all running heads and box heads in continued tables; see that all leading lines are carried at the top where subordinate matter turns over, that dollar marks and italic captions of columns are properly placed and uniform, that the matter is as compact as circumstances will permit, and that footnotes fall on the page containing the corresponding references and are properly arranged.

8. Preserve complete files of all proofs returned to the desk.

9. On the first page of a signature of a stone revise carry any special directions that may be necessary, and on open or session jackets carry the number of copies to be printed.

10. When page proofs are to be sent out on partly completed jobs, fill out Reviser's Memoranda, noting the last galley, the last page, the signature mark, the page on which the last signature mark occurred, and the folio lines. Attach the memoranda to the "mark-off" galley and return to the Chief Reviser.

11. Make sure that different sets of proof sheets on any work are correctly marked in series ("R", "2R", "3R", etc.); where a sheet is stamped "Another proof", carry the same designating "R" on the corresponding clean proof, destroying the stamped proof when it has served its purpose. Advance the "R", "2R", "3R", etc., on each set of page proofs returned from the originating office if a dummy folio has been used, but when the true folio is finally given revert to the single "R." When the "R" is not to be advanced, use an "x", as "2R^x."

12. If two or more jobs are imposed in one form, separate the parts to verify the imposition. Until familiar with the fold, exercise care in cutting the sheet.

13. See that rules do not lap, that work is not jammed in the lock-up, that damaged letters and "slips" are indicated, and that the matter is ready in all respects to pass rigid inspection.

14. Government publications will be made up in the following order unless otherwise indicated: Page I, title; page II blank; page III, table of contents; if contents ends on page III, page IV blank; page V, letter of transmittal; page VI blank; page VII, preface. The text proper will begin with page 1.

15. Legend lines of full-page cuts that run the broad way should be printed so as to read up—that is, the even-page legend should be on the binding or inside margin and the odd-page legend on the outside margin.

16. If a footnote is eliminated, renumber the footnotes so that numbers will run consecutively on facing pages. The omission of a footnote does not necessitate changing the numbers beyond this point.

If the footnotes in an entire job have been made uniform, even though not according to style, do not change them. Footnotes are to be made paragraphs, but short notes may be doubled up. If a footnote is added in proof, use the preceding number with a superior letter added, as ^{15a}. Where a table with footnotes falls at the bottom of a page containing footnotes to text, print the table footnotes above the text footnotes, separated by a rule 50 points long, flush at the left, with two leads on each side of the rule. (See Footnotes, p. 121.)

In revising galleys into pages, revisers must enter on the "mark-off" slip the number of the last footnote and see that instructions to the maker-up are followed.

Press revising.

Press revising calls for the exercise of utmost care. The press reviser must be thoroughly familiar with the style and make-up of Government publications. He is required to O. K. all forms that go to press—book work, covers, job work, etc. He must see that all queries are answered. He must necessarily have a knowledge of the bindery operations required to complete a book or job and be familiar with all types of imposition, folds, etc. He must be capable of ascertaining the proper head, back, and side margins for all work, to insure proper trimming of the completed book or job to the required size.

Although speed is essential when forms reach the pressroom, accuracy must under no consideration be sacrificed.

SIGNATURE MARKS, ETC.

All signature marks are set in 6-point lower-case and are indented 3 ems.

Figures indicating the year should follow the jacket number in signature marks:

125327—35—4

116529—pt. 5—35—3

116529—vol. 1—35—3

The signature line is placed below the all mark (○) but above the imprint if both appear on the same page.

The all mark is placed below the page, bulletin, or circular number but above the signature mark, if both appear on the same page.

Imprints and signature marks appearing on short pages of text are placed at the bottom of the page.

All jobs to be cast take a degree mark (°) immediately after the jacket number in the signature mark.

All jobs to be offset take a capital O immediately after the jacket number in the signature mark.

On a job reprinted on account of change, a black star (★) is placed in the signature line and, with the date, on the title page:

★17234—35—2

★12-15-35

The following forms are used for signature marks in House and Senate documents and reports printed on session jackets:

H. Doc. 73, 74-1—2
S. Doc. 57, 74-2, pt. 1—2
H. Rept. 120, 74-2—8

S. Doc. 57, 74-1—2
S. Doc. 57, 74-2, vol. 1—2
S. Rept. 100, 74-2—9

In a document or report printed on other than a session jacket, use the jacket number, year, and signature number only, omitting the document or report number.

For pasters the jacket number, the figures indicating the year, and the page to be faced by the paster are used as follows (no punctuation):

12344—35 (Face p. 10)

On a paster facing an even page, the marks go at the lower right-hand side; on a paster facing an odd page, at the lower left-hand side.

If more than one paster faces the same page, each is numbered as follows:

12344—35 (Face p. 19) No. 2

IMPRINTS AND PRICE NOTICES

Imprints.

The Government Printing Office imprint must appear on all printed matter.

The full imprint is used on the title page of a congressional speech.

The imprint and all mark are not used together on any page; if one is used the other is omitted.

The imprint is not used on a half title or (except on congressional hearings) on any page of a cover.

If there is a title page, the imprint is placed on the title page, but if there is no title page, or if the title page is entirely an illustration, the imprint is placed on the last page of the text.

The Government Printing Office crest is used only on Government Printing Office publications. If it is printed on page ii, the full imprint is used on the title page; if it is printed on the title page, half imprint only, thus—Washington: 1935.

Price notices are not printed on title pages of congressional documents.

Samples of imprints and price notices are given below.

CAPITALIZATION

(See also Abbreviations; Guide to Capitalization)

The initial capital letter is all that remains of our originally all-capital alphabet. It survives because it serves a definite purpose, such as introducing a sentence or an enumeration, distinguishing an individual within a class, or indicating preeminence, respect, or distinction attaching to a certain individual, position, or object. By thus emphasizing words, the capital letter helps the reader to grasp their significance more readily. Purpose, therefore, rather than mere opinion, is the logical criterion in deciding whether a particular word should be capitalized.

The fundamental principle underlying rules for capitalization in the English language is that proper nouns and proper adjectives are capitalized and that common nouns and common adjectives are not capitalized. The difficulty in applying this principle lies in the fact that some nouns and adjectives are construed as proper in certain connections and common in others. It is impossible to give rules that will cover every conceivable problem, but by considering the purpose to be served and the fundamental principle it is possible to attain a considerable degree of uniformity.

The list of approved usages given on pages 25-42 will serve as a reference guide. Manifestly such a list cannot be complete, but the correct usage with respect to any term not included can be determined by analogy or by application of the rules.

SPELLING

(See also Compound Words; Abbreviations)

To avoid the confusion and uncertainty of various authorities on spelling, the Government Printing Office must of necessity adopt a single guide for the spelling of words the preferred forms of which are not otherwise listed or provided for in this manual. This guide is Webster's New International Dictionary, which has been the accepted authority for Government printing for the past 70 years. Unless herein otherwise authorized, the Government Printing Office will continue to follow Webster's spelling. Colloquial and dialect spellings are not to be used unless required by the subject matter or specially requested.

Geographic names.

25. The spelling of geographic names must conform with the decisions of the United States Geographic Board and its successor, the Division of Geographic Names. In the absence of such a decision, the United States Postal Guide is to be used for names in the United States and its possessions, and the rules of the Board and Division are to be followed in the spelling of foreign names.

If the decisions or the rules of the Board and Division permit the use of either the local official form or the conventional English form, it is the prerogative of the originating office to select the form which is most suitable for the matter in hand; therefore, in marking copy or reading proof, it is required only to verify or correct the spelling of the particular form used.

Transliterations.

26. In the spelling of nongeographic words transliterated from Chinese, Japanese, or other languages that do not have a Latin alphabet, copy is to be followed literally. (Countries that do not use a Latin alphabet are marked with an asterisk in the table on p. 150.)

COMPOUND WORDS

(See also Guide to Compounding)

A compound word is a union of two or more words, either with or without a hyphen.

In the development of the English language many separate words have been united into compounds because of their close and repeated association, but the process, mainly for want of guiding principles, has been both haphazard and erratic. Consequently current usage abounds in inconsistencies, and authorities do not agree.

A compound word conveys a unit idea that is not conveyed by the component words in unconnected succession. The hyphen in a compound is a mark of punctuation that not only unites but separates the component words and thus facilitates understanding, aids readability, and insures a correct pronunciation.

General rule.

43. Two or more words are compounded either to express a unit idea (literal or nonliteral) or to avoid ambiguity.

drydock
newsprint

whitewash childlike ladyfinger ball-like right-of-way

co-op

Rules applying to all parts of speech.

44. A hyphen is used—

(a) To avoid doubling a vowel (except after the short prefixes co, de, pre, pro, re) or tripling a consonant.

(b) To prevent mispronunciation, especially to insure a definite accent on each element of the compound.

45. A hyphen is used in a compound noun containing an adverb as its second element; also in a compound noun consisting of three or more words.

go-between hold-up looker-on forget-me-not

47. A hyphen and an apostrophe are used in a compound containing a possessive noun as one of its elements.

bull's-eye mare's-nest

asses'-eyes ass's-foot

48. A compound adjective in which the second element is a past participle or a coined adjective in the form of a past participle is hyphenated unless derived from a solid compound or unless the first element is an adverb ending in ly.

This material is fire-tested.
The flowers were bell-shaped.

The slopes are wind-blown.
This generation is air-minded.

heavy-laden fear-fraught broadleaved

He was engaged in painting and paperhanging.

GUIDE TO COMPOUNDING

The following list is based on the principles and rules for compounding given on pages 51-54. Manifestly such a list cannot be complete, but the approved usage with respect to any words not included can be determined by analogy or by application of the rules or the general principle.

Words printed flush are combined with the words which follow to form solid or hyphenated compounds; space marks (#) indicate two-word forms.

Words listed as combining forms and prefixes are limited to only a few examples. Such words are usually solid, but the hyphen is sometimes required for a special reason.

The abbreviations a. (adjective), adv. (adverb), n. (noun), v. (verb), and u. m. (unit modifier) indicate functions of the compounds as given. Foreign languages are indicated by the usual abbreviations.

Uniformity of treatment: For the sake of appearance, it may sometimes be necessary to treat alike words which if widely separated would have different forms, as, for example, deck house and warehouse. Appearing in juxtaposition, these and similar words may be made uniform. When this is done it should be understood that it is only a temporary expedient for the job in hand and does not supersede the list here given.

ABBREVIATIONS

(See also Numerals; Symbols)

Abbreviations are used to save space and to avoid distracting the mind of the reader by a repetition of long, cumbersome words or phrases.

The nature of the publication governs the extent to which abbreviations are used. In ordinary text, abbreviations are to be avoided, with a few exceptions; in formal usage even fewer abbreviations are required; in the text of technical publications and in parentheses, footnotes, sidenotes, tables, leader work, and bibliographies many words are commonly abbreviated. Cut-in side heads, tables of contents, and indexes are regarded as text.

Some scientific, technical, and industrial groups have adopted definite forms of abbreviations for terms in their specialized fields, and these forms are acceptable for use in publications falling within the respective classes.

Capitalization, hyphenation, period, and spacing.

59. In general, an abbreviation follows the capitalization and hyphenation of the word or words abbreviated. It is followed by a period unless otherwise indicated.

IMPORTANT CHANGES INCLUDED IN THE 1935 REVISION OF THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE STYLE MANUAL

Samples submitted will not be considered as style for composition if they conflict with the Style Manual (p. 1).

All tables will be set in 6-point solid unless copy is marked otherwise (p. 5).

The depth of sinks on new pages is graduated according to the length of the page (p. 8).

Signature lines are always set in 6-point lower-case, never in small caps (p. 12).

Note punctuation in signature lines on pasters (p. 12).

Imprints are not to be used on any page of cover except on congressional hearings, and are never used on a half title (p. 13).

Derivatives of proper names used with acquired and common meaning listed definitely (p. 15, par. 2a).

Such terms as lock and pier are lower-cased, even with name or number (p. 16, par. 3d).

Capitalization of the word Territory is liberalized (p. 18, par. 7).

Names of the 24 great soil groups are capitalized (p. 19, par. 8a).

Capitalize New Deal (Roosevelt administration) (p. 20, par. 13).

Capitalization of short or popular titles of acts widened to include Federal, State, and foreign acts (p. 22, par. 17a).

Definite rule as to capitalization in matter set in caps and small caps and caps and lower-case (p. 23, par. 19a; p. 141, par. 284a).

Numerous changes in approved forms of spelling. See aid, aide, envelope, milk cow, rhyme, etc. (pp. 43-44).

Restriction on the use of accents in geographic names stricken out (p. 45, par. 25).

Plurals of gothic shapes and forms are formed by adding an apostrophe and s (p. 48, par. 38; p. 101, par. 99b).

Hyphens are not used in color combinations (p. 52, par. 51).

Latin terms are hyphenated when used as unit modifiers (p. 52, par. 52).

Hyphen used in unit modifier which reads back (p. 53, par. 52b).

The hyphen is used in fractions when spelled (p. 53, par. 56).

Spaces are used after periods following one-letter abbreviations, paragraph 59 (a) on page 87 being changed to provide for the omission of spaces in symbols when periods also are omitted.

Such words as street, avenue, and building are abbreviated in parentheses, footnotes, sidenotes, tables, and leader work, and in these same instances figures are used for the numbers of streets and avenues (p. 88, par. 62).

The provision for the use of figures in groups of two or more enumerations is changed to provide for the use of figures only when one of the enumerations is 10 or over (p. 96, par. 84a).

Use full space after colon in Biblical citations (p. 103, par. 104e).

The comma is used between title and name of organization (p. 104, par. 105l).

The final period is not omitted after flush heads and cut-in side heads (p. 108, par. 115b).

Lists of words set in columns will carry the final period unless copy is otherwise prepared (p. 108, par. 115b).

Use of quotation marks restricted following known as, so-called, etc. (p. 108, par. 117b).

Quotation marks are not borne off from adjacent characters (p. 109, par. 117e).

Months are spelled in tabular work unless followed by the day (p. 111, par. 125).

All clears and indentions are in addition to bear-offs (p. 111, par. 128).

Center heads, including years, in figure and date columns are set in italic (p. 113, par. 146; p. 114, par. 159).

A cipher used alone in a money or other decimal column is placed in the unit row preceding the period (p. 113, par. 148).

Use of the do. is clarified (pp. 114–115, pars. 161, 162, 167).

Plus and minus signs at the right in figure columns are cleared (p. 115, par. 176).

Fractions standing alone will be spelled at the beginning of a footnote (p. 117, par. 192).

Figures are centered in tables in rules consisting entirely of figure columns (p. 118, par. 207).

Do. is not used in an independent column consisting entirely of units of quantity (p. 118, par. 209a).

Well-known abbreviations of units of quantity will be used over all figure columns of a table if it is necessary to abbreviate over any column to save overrun (p. 118, par. 210).

The dollar mark does not carry through leaders in leader work (p. 121, par. 216).

Footnote references begin with 1 in each statement of leader work, and footnotes are printed immediately beneath the leader work, separated from it by two leads (p. 121, par. 218).

Units of quantity and other words centered over stub or figure column in leader work are set in 6-point italic (p. 122, par. 219).

More than eight signatures, with or without titles, are run in, caps and lower-case, and are set with hanging indention, 5 and 7 ems (p. 125, par. 235).

In copy marked Fol., compounding is included in the features which are to be followed (p. 131, par. 244).

In copy marked Fol. lit. abbreviations are not closed up unless so prepared (p. 131, par. 245a).

In copy marked Fol. lit. or Fol., incl. punc. the relative position of quotation marks to other marks of punctuation will be followed (p. 131, par. 245a).

Capitalization and compounding are included in the features to be followed in printing Supreme Court and other court records (p. 133, par. 252) and opinions of the Court of Claims and the various courts of appeals (p. 134, par. 265a).

In 12-point briefs the overrun lines in the titles of cases are set in caps and small caps on both covers and captions (p. 136). This rule also applies to titles of cases in court opinions (pp. 138, 139).

Footnotes to indented matter are set full measure (p. 144, par. 317).

Sidenotes and cut-in notes are to be set flush on left and ragged unless otherwise prepared (p. 144, par. 320).

Two leads, three leads, etc., marked on copy means two leads in all, three leads in all, etc. (p. 144, par. 325).

Use of leads around flush heads and extracts indicated (p. 144, pars. 326, 327).

NUMERALS

(See also Tabular Work; Leader Work)

Arabic numerals are generally preferable to roman numerals.

Most rules for the use of arabic numerals are based on the general principle that they are used in expressions of quantity or measurement, in enumerations, and in matter that is primarily statistical, but that numbers are spelled out in certain connections for special reasons. The following rules cover the most common conditions that require a decision between the use of arabic numerals and words. Some of them, however, are based on typographic appearance rather than on the general principle stated above.

NUMBERS EXPRESSED IN FIGURES

Punctuation.

82. The comma is used in a number containing four or more digits, except in serial numbers or in astronomical time.

Quantities and measurements.

83. Quantities and measurements are expressed in figures.

In referring to a fiscal year, consecutive years, or a continuous period of more than 2 years, when contracted, the forms 1931-32, 1801-2 1875-79 are used (but 1895-1914, 1900-1901); for 2 or more separate years not representing a continuous period a comma is used instead of a dash (1875, 1879).

Decimals: In text a cipher should be supplied before a decimal point if there is no unit, and ciphers should be omitted after a decimal point unless they indicate exact measurement.

Enumerations.

84. Figures are used for enumerations and serial numbers, as follows:

(a) Two or more enumerations within a sentence, any one of which is 10 or over. A unit of quantity or measurement as defined in paragraph 83, which is always expressed in figures, is not considered as a part of a group of enumerations within a sentence.

That occurred four out of five times.

There were 3 committees consisting of 10 men.

The farmer owned 8 horses and 10 cows.

There were five men, three women, and nine children on the bus.

The six-room house was completed in a 5-day week.

I would like to say one or two words, but I won't take more than 4 or 5 minutes of your time.

Fractions.

86. Built fractions ($\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$, $\frac{3}{8}$, $\frac{5}{8}$, $\frac{7}{8}$, $\frac{1}{2954}$) are used in text, but the shilling mark with full-sized figures ($1/4$, $1/2954$) may be used if specially requested.

87. Figure fractions are used in a unit modifier.

NUMBERS SPELLED OUT

Numbers beginning a sentence.

88. Numbers are generally spelled out at the beginning of a sentence, but in technical matter, testimony, hearings, etc., arabic numerals are used for years, sums of money of $1 or over, decimals, street numbers, and other cumbersome expressions. A colon preceding a number does not affect the use of numerals.

Serious and dignified subjects.

89. Numbers mentioned in connection with serious and dignified subjects are spelled out.

the Thirteen Original States in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-two (in formal documents)

the Seventy-second Congress millions for defense but not one cent for tribute

(a) Numbers larger than 1,000, if spelled out, should be in the following form:

two thousand and twenty one thousand eight hundred and fifty one hundred and fifty-two thousand three hundred and five eighteen hundred and fifty (serial number)

Enumerations.

90. The following enumerations are spelled out:

(a) Enumerations of 100 or less preceding a compound modifier containing a figure.

two $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch boards twelve 6-inch guns
but 120 8-inch boards

(b) Indefinite expressions.

20 million	25½ million dollars
4 millions	2¾ billions

Related numbers.

92. Related numbers close together at the beginning of a sentence are treated alike.

Fifty or sixty miles away is snow-clad Mount McKinley.

Round numbers.

93. Round numbers are spelled out.

a hundred cows	forty-odd people
a thousand dollars	one-hundred-and-odd men
a million and a half	one-hundred-odd pupils

SYMBOLS

The increased use of symbols and their importance in technical and scientific work have emphasized the necessity of standardization on a national basis and of the consistent use of the standard forms.

Certain symbols are well standardized—number symbols (the digits, 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9), letter symbols (the letters of the alphabet, a, b, c, d, etc.), and graphic symbols (the arithmetical signs +, −, ×, ÷). As heretofore, the Government Printing Office will furnish at cost new special symbols for technical matter when necessary.

Letter symbols.

95. Letter symbols are set in italics without periods and are capitalized only if so shown in copy, since the capitalized form may have an entirely different meaning. However, a few symbols are set in roman if so indicated in copy.

(a) In mathematical equations use italic for all symbol letters—capitals, lower-case, small capitals, and superiors and inferiors (exponents and subscripts)—and roman for arabic numerals (including superiors and inferiors).

$$X^3Z_1 \times 9_2 \times 8Q_4 1 = {}_5d^3 \times P^2n_4 - Wx^1 - \frac{7^3N5^1O_46 \times {}_2W^2R_2}{L_M D_E E^F G^B}$$

$$d^k + h_a^k g_a^k a \sqrt{\frac{{}_b8972^a{}_{hd}}{X_{dr}{}^c + X_h n^c{}_d}} + \frac{C^E e L^G N^a H_7 O_{B7}{}^0 P^0 a_{Kn} S_{Ln} T^0{}_{Mh}}{C_7 b^1 L_7 v^2 M^3{}_7 P^b{}_7 v_2 Y^b{}_7 n_2 N_2 d^0{}_{1n}}$$

Chemical symbols.

96. The chemical elements are designated by the initial letter or a shortened form of the English or Latin name. Not being strictly symbols but rather abbreviations, they are set in roman, but without periods. (See p. 153.)

Standardized symbols.

97. Symbols duly standardized through the procedure of any national qualified scientific, professional, or technical group are accepted as preferred forms within the field of the group when a duly authenticated copy of such standardized symbols is furnished to the Government Printing Office. The issuing office desiring or requiring the use of such standardized symbols should see that copy is prepared accordingly.

Examples.

98. The following approved lists of standardized symbols are acceptable under the above rule, since they have passed the conditions set forth in that rule, approved copies having been furnished to the Style Board:

Mathematical Symbols (ASA Z 10f—1928)
 Letter Symbols for Electrical Quantities (ASA Z 10gl)
 Aeronautical Symbols (ASA Z 10e—1929)

PUNCTUATION

Punctuation is a device to clarify the meaning of written or printed language. In speech, pauses and emphasis serve the same purpose. Either punctuation or pauses, if wrongly placed, may alter the sense.

Well-planned word order requires a minimum of punctuation. The trend toward less punctuation calls for skillful phrasing to avoid ambiguity and insure exact interpretation.

The punctuation required even in well-phrased text should aid clearness. If the use of a punctuation mark is in doubt, the question to be asked is "Why?" rather than "Why not?" If doubt persists, the mark should be omitted to aid the smooth flow of words. Marks interrupt. They are needed only to make the thought clearer or to facilitate oral expression. Beyond that they are detrimental to speed, ease, and exactness of understanding.

Rules for punctuation may be arbitrary in origin and may be observed from habit or inertia. Moreover, rules cannot be devised to meet all exigencies in the limitless variety of word sequence; hence principles must govern.

At each critical point in a sentence there may be a choice of punctuation; the following brief summary of the functions of punctuation marks, in order of decreasing break, may therefore prove helpful:

The period marks a full break or complete stop.

The dash, parenthesis, bracket, and comma allow the interpolation of extraneous matter in the main text.

Marks of ellipsis break the continuity of the text to indicate an omission.

The colon introduces the text that follows it but does not necessarily break the continuity of the thought.

The semicolon breaks the text with somewhat more force than the comma and should not be used where a comma will suffice.

The comma—the least break in the text—prevents ambiguity by setting off items in sequence where a false connection might otherwise be imputed.

Quotation marks, question marks, exclamation points, apostrophes, hyphens, and braces all have unique functions which require no explanation.

The general principles governing the use of punctuation are (1) that if it does not clarify the text it should be omitted and (2) that in the choice and placing of punctuation marks the sole aim should be to bring out more clearly the author's thought.

Apostrophe.

99. The apostrophe is used—

(a) To indicate a contraction.

Every man's work shall be made manifest.—I Corinthians 3: 13.

This statement is open to question.—G. H. F.

- (h) After a period following a run-in side head.

- (i) To separate run-in questions and answers in testimony.

Q. Did he go?—A. No.

- (j) En dashes are used instead of hyphens in connected combinations of figures, letters, or figures and letters; they will also be used in the absence of the word to when denoting a period of time.

108. The dash is not used—

- (a) At the beginning of any line of type, except as indicated in paragraphs (f) and (g) above.

- (b) With any other mark of punctuation except as indicated in paragraphs (a), (e), (g), (h), and (i) above.

Ellipsis.

109. Marks of ellipsis—asterisks (or periods if so prepared)—are used to indicate the omission of part of a quotation.

Three asterisks, separated by em quads, are used to denote an ellipsis in text; if periods are used instead of asterisks, they are separated by en quads. Neither asterisks nor periods are overrun at the end of a paragraph.

In document or wider measure, "line of stars" means seven asterisks indented 2 ems at each end of the line, with the remaining space divided evenly between the asterisks. In measures less than document, except Congressional Record, five stars are used. If two or more sizes of type are used on a page, 10-point asterisks are indented 2 ems; 8-point, 2½ ems; and 6-point, 3½ ems. An extra indentation is added in indented matter.

For the use of marks of ellipsis within quotations, see under Quotation marks.

Exclamation point.

110. The exclamation point is used to mark surprise, incredulity, admiration, or appeal, which may be expressed even in a declarative or interrogative sentence.

He acknowledged the error!

How beautiful!

"Great!" he shouted.

What!

Who shouted, "All aboard!" (Note omission of question mark.)

(a) In direct address, either to a person or a personified object, O is used without an exclamation point; but if strong feeling is expressed, an exclamation point is placed at the end of the expression.

O my friend, let us consider this subject impartially.

O Lord, save Thy people!

(b) In exclamations without direct address or appeal oh is used instead of O, and the exclamation point is omitted.

Oh, but the gentleman is mistaken.

Oh dear, the time is so short.

Hyphen.

111. The hyphen is used—

(a) To connect the elements of certain compound words. (See Compound Words.)

(b) To indicate the continuation of a word divided at the end of a line.

(c) Between the letters of a spelled word.

c-e-n-t-s

h-o-l-d-u-p

Parentheses.

112. Parentheses are used—

(a) To set off matter not intended to be part of the main argument of the text, yet important enough to be included.

The CHAIRMAN (to Mr. Smith).

Mr. KELLEY (to the chairman).

(Objected to.)

Answer (after examining list). Yes; I do.

Q. (Continuing.)

A. (Reads:)

A. (Interrupting.)

This case (124 U. S. 329) is not relevant.

The result (see fig. 2) is most surprising.

(b) To enclose a parenthetical clause where the interruption is too great to be indicated by commas.

You can find it neither in French dictionaries (at any rate, not in Littré) nor in English.

(c) To enclose an explanatory word not part of the statement.

the Erie (Pa.) News

but the News, of Erie, Pa.

Washington, D. C., schools

113. A reference in parentheses at the end of a sentence is placed before the period unless it is a complete sentence in itself or unless copy is specifically marked otherwise.

The specimen exhibits both phases (pl. 14, A, B).

The individual cavities show great variation. (See pl. 4.)

(a) If a sentence contains more than one parenthetical reference the one at the end is placed before the period.

This sandstone (see pl. 6) occurs in every county of the State (see pl. 1).

Period.

114. The period is used—

(a) After a declarative sentence.

Stars are suns.

He was employed by Sampson & Co.

(b) After an imperative sentence.

Do not be late.

On with the dance.

(c) After an indirect question or a polite request.

Tell me how he did it.

Please furnish three sets of proofs.

(d) Sometimes to indicate ellipsis.

He called . . . and left. . . . He returned the next day.

(e) After a run-in side head (with a dash following).

Conditional subjunctive.—The conditional subjunctive is required for all unreal and doubtful conditions.

(h) After legends and explanatory matter beneath illustrations.

(i) Rarely, to indicate multiplication; the multiplication sign is preferable for this purpose.

a.b ($a \times b$)

(j) After words or short items set in columns unless otherwise indicated on copy.

21048°—35——8

115. The period is omitted—

(a) After roman numerals used as ordinals.

George V

(b) In general, at the ends of lines in title pages, after center and running heads, after box heads of tables, after scientific, chemical, or other symbols, after abbreviations based on the metric system, and (when so indicated on copy) after words or short items (other than abbreviations) set in columns.

(c) After a quotation mark that is preceded by a period.

He said, "Now or never."

(d) After letters used as names without specific designation.

A said to B that * * *.

Mr. A told Mr. B that * * *.

but Mr. A. (for Mr. Andrews) * * *.

Mr. K. (for Mr. King) * * *.

(e) After explanatory matter set in 6-point under leaders or rules.

Name	Address	Position

Question mark.

116. The question mark is used—

(a) To indicate a direct query, even if not in the form of a question.

Did he do it?

He did it?

Can the money be raised? is the question.

Who asked, "Why?" (Note single question mark.)

(b) To express more than one query in the same sentence.

Can he do it? or you? or anyone?

(c) To express doubt.

He said the boy was 8 (?) feet tall.

Quotation marks.

117. Quotation marks are used—

(a) To enclose direct quotations. (Each part of an interrupted quotation begins and ends with quotation marks.)

He said "No."

He said, "John said 'No.'" (Alternate single and double quotes for quotations within quotations.)

"John," said Henry, "why do you go?"

(b) In general, to enclose any matter following such terms as entitled, the word, the term, marked, endorsed, or signed; but are not used to enclose expressions following the terms known as, called, so-called, etc., unless such expressions are misnomers or slang.

Account 5, "Management fees."

Under the heading "Management and operation."

In the chapter "Management and operation."

Of what does the item "Miscellaneous debts" consist?

Congress passed the act entitled "An act * * *."

After the word "treaty" insert a comma.

He was known as "The Cid."

The column "Imports from foreign countries" was not * * *.

Under "Receipts and expenditures" will be found * * *.

(c) At the beginning of each paragraph of a quotation, but at the end of the last paragraph only. In order to avoid too many quotation marks at the beginning of such paragraphs, however, it is sometimes preferable to run matter in. Quotation marks should be limited, if possible, to three sets (double, single, double).

(d) To enclose misnomers, slang expressions, or ordinary words used in an arbitrary way.

He voted for the "lame duck" amendment. (Note omission of hyphen.)

His report was "bunk."

It was a "gentlemen's agreement."

The "invisible government" is responsible.

(e) Quotation marks will not be borne off from adjacent characters unless they precede a fraction or an apostrophe or precede or follow a superior figure or letter, in which cases a thin-space bear-off will be used. A thin space will also be used to separate double and single quotation marks.

118. Quotation marks are not used to enclose complete letters having date and signature, extracts that are indented or set in smaller type, or (generally) solid extracts in leaded matter.

119. Punctuation marks should be placed inside the quotation marks if they are a part of the matter quoted; otherwise they are placed outside (except final period).

Ruth said, "I think so."

The trainman shouted, "All aboard!"

Who asked, "Why?"

Insert the word "growth", "production", or "manufacture", according to facts.

The President suggests that "an early occasion be sought * * *."

(a) However, in certain classes of congressional and other work showing amendments, the final period is printed after the quotation marks when not a part of the quoted matter.

120. In a citation the period and quotation marks should precede the footnote reference number.

The commissioner claimed that the award was "unjustified."¹

His exact words were: "The facts in the case prove otherwise."²

121. If poetry is quoted, each verse should start with quotation marks, but only the last verse should end with them. The lines of the poem should range on the left, those that rhyme taking the same indention, and the quotation marks should be cleared.

"Rest is not quitting
The busy career;
Rest is the fitting
Of self to one's sphere.

"'Tis the brook's motion,
Clear without strife,
Fleeing to ocean
After its life."

—John Sullivan Dwight.

Semicolon.

122. The semicolon is used—

(a) To separate phrases containing commas.

Other minerals of this stage are dolomite, in small rhombic crystals; celestite, in slender prisms and radial aggregates; and sylvanite, in small prismatic crystals.

Reptiles, amphibians, and predatory mammals swallow their prey whole or in large pieces, bones included; waterfowl habitually take shellfish entire; and gallinaceous birds are provided with gizzards that grind up the hardest seeds.

(b) To separate statements that are too closely related in meaning to be written as separate sentences.

It is true in peace; it is true in war.

123. The semicolon is to be avoided where a comma will suffice.

Single punctuation.

124. Single punctuation is used wherever possible without ambiguity.

TABULAR WORK

(See also Abbreviations; Leader Work)

The object of a table is to present in a concise and orderly manner information that could not be presented so clearly in any other way.

Unless otherwise specified, tables will be set in 6-point, and 2-point rules will be used.

The style given for text in other sections of this manual applies also to tables, unless deviation therefrom is made necessary by the form or purpose of the tables. Special features of tabular composition and necessary deviations from text style are set forth in the following rules.

Abbreviations.

125. The names of months (except May, June, and July), where followed by the day, are abbreviated; otherwise months are spelled. However, in narrow reading columns consisting solely of single months the months may be abbreviated.

(a) The words street, avenue, place, road, square, boulevard, and building, following name or number, are abbreviated. For the numbers of streets or avenues, figures are used.

(b) Abbreviate the words United States if preceding the word Government or the name of any Government organization; use the abbreviations R. R. and Ry. following name (except as indicated on p. 89, par. 66a) and S. S. preceding name; use lat. and long. when with figures; abbreviate (when followed by figures) the various parts of publications, as article, part, section, etc. (see p. 89, par. 68); and use, generally, such abbreviations and contractions as 74th Cong., 2d sess., H. Res. 5, H. J. Res. 21, S. Doc. 62, S. Rept. 410 (see p. 90, pars. 69, 70), Rev. Stat., Stat. L., etc., when with figures.

126. In columns containing names of persons copy is followed as to abbreviations of given names, but well-known abbreviations of such names are used if necessary to save overruns.

127. Periods are not used after abbreviations followed by leaders, but are used before footnote references.

Bear-off.

128. An en quad is used for bear-off—from both rules in an inside reading or date column, from the rule on the right in a figure column, and from the adjacent rule in an outside reading or date column. In a crowded table the bear-off may be omitted in figure columns. All clears and indentions indicated on copy are in addition to bear-off.

Blanks.

129. Blank lines are omitted unless their retention is specially requested.

Box heads.

130. Periods are omitted after box heads, but a dash is used after any box head that reads into the matter below.

131. Box heads are set solid and bear off an em space above and below rule unless they run up.

132. Box heads are centered except that in a column 10 ems or more in width a head making three lines or more is set with hanging indentation.

133. Box heads run crosswise wherever practicable; if necessary to run up, they are reduced to the minimum practicable depth. If one head must run up, all heads over figure columns in the same table are run up. Running up over reading and date columns is to be avoided. Box heads need not run up in all sections of divided tables.

134. Run-up heads are indented an en quad at the beginning of the line and bear off an en quad from the top rule; if they make two lines, the second is centered; if three lines, they are set with hanging indentation.

135. If a single box exceeds the depth of a double or triple box, the extra space is placed in the lowermost box.

136. In compound boxes the greatest number of lines in a top box controls the depth of all the top boxes, unless the total depth of the head would thereby be increased; so also in each of the other boxes. The top box of a triple box head may be of such depth as to make a better appearance by alining its bottom rule with the bottom rule of the second box.

Sex and age	Employed boys and girls whose work records were obtained
	Total		Time of year at beginning work [depth of this box governs depth of box on left]
	Number	Percent distribution	June to August		September to May		Not reported
			Number	Percent distribution	Number	Percent distribution
Boys (12 to 14)	3, 869	45. 5	1, 415	9. 6	2, 405	15. 8	49

137. In boxes containing two lines the first line is to be the longer, if possible, but good appearance must not be sacrificed by dividing short words or making two-letter divisions in wide columns.

138. In parallel tables a box head that is divided is repeated on subsequent pages with the word Continued.

139. In referring to quantity or things the word Number in box heads is spelled if possible.

140. In an 8-point table with a 6-point box head, an 8-point quad line is inserted between head and body of table if no italic unit of quantity is given; if a unit of quantity is given, use a 6-point quad line and set unit of quantity in 6-point italic.

Braces.

141. Braces are avoided if possible; if used, they are placed on the right of a rule and should extend to include overruns.

Center heads, flush heads, and subheads.

142. Center heads over tables are set solid over solid tables and leaded over leaded tables; they follow the same general style of the tables as to the use of figures and abbreviations. Words are preferably not divided between pages in heads over parallel tables.

143. Punctuation is omitted after center heads. Flush entries and subentries over subordinate items are followed by a colon (single subentry to run in, preserving the colon), but a dash may be used instead of a colon when the entry reads into the matter below.

144. A full quad line is placed above all center heads, including years, in reading and standard date columns. However, if a dash, overrun, etc., in another column furnishes a blank space above the head, an extra quad line is not added.

145. If the center head clears the reading matter below, and there are leaders, no space is used below the head; if there are no leaders below and the center head clears at least an em, the quad line is omitted, but if it clears less than an em, a full quad line is used.

146. Center heads, including years, in figure and standard date columns are set in italic with a quad line above and no space below.

147. Where the logical construction of a table requires, it is permissible to insert subheads between page-width cross rules within the table to indicate class groups to which the data refer. The box head and units of quantity are not repeated.

Ciphers.

148. Where the first number in a column or under a cross rule is wholly a decimal, a cipher is added at the left of its decimal point. A cipher used alone in a money or other decimal column is placed in the unit row preceding the period. In mixed units the cipher is repeated before each decimal unless group is totaled.

149. Copy is followed in the use of the word none or a cipher to indicate none in figure columns. If neither one appears in the copy, leaders are inserted. In columns of figures under the heading £ s. d., if a whole number of pounds is given, one cipher is supplied under s. and one under d.; if only shillings are given, one cipher is supplied under d. In columns of figures under Ft. in., if only feet are given, supply cipher under in.; if only inches are given, clear under Ft.; if ciphers are used to indicate none, place one cipher under both Ft. and in. In any column containing sums of money the period and ciphers are omitted if the column consists entirely of even dollars. In columns containing both dollars and cents, ciphers will be supplied on right of decimal point in the absence of figures.

150. In continued heads an em dash is used between the head and the word Continued. The abbreviation Contd. or Con. is used only to avoid an overrun. If the head is in small caps the term continued, contd., or con. is not capitalized.

(a) In a head set in caps, caps and small caps, or italic the word Continued is set in caps and lower-case roman; in a heading set in bold-faced caps or lower-case the word Continued is set in caps and lower-case of the same font as head.

151. Continued heads over tables are to be condensed into one line if possible. Notes above tables and footnote references in table heads and box heads are not repeated unless necessary to make the table clear.

Dashes or rules.

152. Rules may be used in place of dashes in a crowded table.

153. Dashes or rules are not carried in reading or date columns.

154. Parallel dashes are used to cut off figures from other figures below that are added or subtracted; also above a grand total.

Date columns.

155. Standard date columns with month and day are cast $4\frac{1}{2}$ ems for outside columns and 5 ems for inside columns; with month, day, and year, 7 ems and $7\frac{1}{2}$ ems. The figures are alined on the right, and any extra space is inserted between the month and day. An en comma is used between the day and the year.

156. In a date column of $4\frac{1}{2}$ ems that is the first column of a table the month is cleared instead of being repeated or indicated by Do.

157. A standard date column is not considered a reading column, and no period is used after the date if the column is the last one of the table; however, a column consisting entirely of dates but not a standard date column is considered a reading column. Words or figures in standard date columns are alined on the left and followed by leaders.

158. Footnote references in date columns are placed at the right. If the date column is the last column, the references are placed at the left.

159. If the year is centered as a head in a standard date column, it is set in italic with a full quad line above but no space below.

160. In columns consisting entirely of single and/or double years, the figures are centered in the columns without leaders.

	1899-1900 ²
	1901-2

Ditto.

161. The abbreviation do. is used in reading and date columns only, lower-cased and preceded by leaders when figures or text is used in preceding column, except in last column of table, where capital is used with no leaders. Tracing columns are counted as the first and last columns of table. All do.'s should be uniform throughout column; if any one is lower-cased all in the column should be lower-cased and preceded by leaders.

162. Do. is not used in a figure column, in the first line under a center head in the column in which the center head occurs, under a line of leaders, under an item italicized or set in bold-faced type for a specific reason (italic or bold-faced do. is never used; item is repeated), under an item consisting wholly of figures or combinations of letters and figures, or in a reading column containing only Yes and No. Do. is used, however, under a blank space.

163. Do. does not apply to a reference mark on the preceding item. The reference mark, if needed, is added to the do.

164. Do. under a braced group relates only to the last item of the group.

165. Leaders are not used before do. in the first column or before or after do. in the last column.

CORRECTION IN G. P. O. STYLE MANUAL

Page 115, paragraphs 166 and 167, change to read:

166. In a first column 6 ems or less in width, a 1-em quad is used before do.; in all other columns 6 ems or less in width, 1½ ems of leaders are used, except in a last column, in which quads are used in place of leaders. Bear-off is included. Capitalize do. in first and last columns.

167. In a first column more than 6 ems in width, 2 ems of quads are used before do.; in all other columns more than 6 ems in width, 2½ ems of leaders are used, except in a last column, in which quads are used in place of leaders. Bear-off is included. If the preceding line is indented, the indentation of the do. is increased accordingly. The do. under an indented item in an inside reading column, with matter in preceding column, is preceded by 2 ems of leaders which are indented to aline with item above. Capitalize do. in the first and last columns.

Double-up tables.

172. If the matter under a center head, flush entry, or subentry breaks and is carried over to the second part of a double-up table, a continued head is inserted at the top of the second part.

173. An en-quad bear-off is used on each side of the parallel rule separating the two parts of a double-up table. This applies also to leaders and dashes in the last column of the first part, but not to rules in box heads.

174. Figures aline on the right. In a crowded table the en-quad bear-off may be omitted from the figure columns, but if only a few figures will touch the rule on the left, it is preferable to retain the bear-off on the right. The whole table, including all parts of a divided table, must be treated alike.

(a) When figures occur in parentheses the parentheses are set against the rule and the figures alined on right. In tables set "Figs. ag.", parentheses are cleared.

175. In double rows of figures in a single column, connected by a dash, a plus or minus sign, or the word to or a similar connecting word, the dashes, signs, or words are usually alined.

176. Plus or minus signs at the left of figures are placed close to the figures regardless of alinement; plus and minus signs at the right of figures are placed against the rule and are cleared.

177. Words and roman numerals in figure columns are alined on the right with the figures, without period; letters and symbols are centered in the columns.

178. Figures (including decimal and common fractions) expressing mixed units of quantity (feet, dollars, etc.) are alined on the right.

179. Decimal points are alined except in columns containing numbers that refer to mixed units (such as pounds, dollars, and percentage) and have irregular decimals. Copy preparers should indicate at the top of each folio the clear necessary for decimals; the clear indicated does not include bear-off. In a continued or double-up table the maker-up should transpose the space so that all columns will have an en bear-off only.

Footnotes and references.

(See also Headnotes.)

180. Figures are used for footnote references, beginning with 1 in each table, but if figures might lead to ambiguity (for example, in connection with a chemical formula), letters, asterisks, daggers, etc., may be used. A thin space is not used to bear off an asterisk, dagger, or similar character.

181. If a reference is repeated on another page it should carry the original footnote; but, to prevent repetition, especially of a long note, it may carry instead, as a cross-reference, the words "See footnote 1 [or 2, 3, etc.], p. —."

182. References to footnotes are numbered consecutively across the page from left to right and across both pages in a parallel table. Footnotes to a parallel table begin on the even page unless there are no references on that page.

184. In a figure column or date column a footnote reference standing alone is set in parentheses and centered; in a reading column it is set at the left in parentheses and is followed by leaders, but in the last column by a period and quads, as if it were a word.

185. The footnotes are placed immediately beneath the table. If the table runs over more than one page, the appropriate footnotes go with each page.

186. If the footnotes to both table and text fall together at the bottom of a page, the footnotes to the table are placed above the footnotes to the text, the two groups separated by a 50-point rule flush on left.

187. Footnotes are set as paragraphs, but two or more short footnotes may be combined by the maker-up in one line, with the blank spaces equalized, provided the spaces are not less than 2 ems. In a series of short footnotes the reference numbers are alined on the right.

188. Footnotes in measures wider than document will be set half measure and doubled up wherever practicable.

189. The footnotes and notes referring to a table are set solid if the table is solid and leaded if the table is leaded.

190. Footnotes and notes referring to tables are usually set in type 2 points smaller than the table but not smaller than 6-point.

191. The same abbreviations are used in the footnotes as in the table.

192. In footnotes numbers are expressed in figures, even at the beginning of a note or sentence. Fractions standing alone will be spelled at the beginning of footnotes.

193. If a footnote consists entirely or partly of a table, the footnote table is set the full width of text. It should always be preceded by introductory matter carrying the reference number; if necessary copy preparer should add an introductory line, such as "See the following table:"

194. An explanatory paragraph without specific reference but belonging to the table rather than to the text follows the footnotes, if any, and is separated from them or from the table by two leads.

Fractions.

195. Em fractions are set flush to the rule on the right, even in tables in rules (except in last column); en fractions bear off as usual. Whole numbers clear the fractions throughout the columns except in columns containing numbers that refer to mixed units (such as pounds, dollars, and percentage). Copy preparers should indicate at top of each column the clear necessary for fractions; in a continued or double-up table the maker-up should transpose the space so that all columns will have an en bear-off only.

(a) Fractions standing alone are expressed in figures, even at the beginning of a line, but not at the beginning of a footnote.

Headnotes.

196. Headnotes above tables are enclosed in brackets and set in type 2 points smaller than the table but not smaller than 6-point. They are not repeated with continued heads unless necessary to make table clear.

Italic.

197. Names of vessels and aircraft (except in reading columns consisting entirely of such names), titles of legal cases, and certain scientific terms are set in italic. See and see also are set in roman.

Leaders.

198. Leaders run across the entire table except that they are omitted from a last reading column or a first or last date column. Leaders may be omitted in any line from a reading column followed only by other reading columns which in that particular line are blank, when copy is so prepared.

199. If there is only one reading column in a table, the leaders run from the bottom line of an overrun; if there is more than one reading column, they run from the top line, and the overrun ends with a period. (A date column is not regarded as a reading column.)

(a) In tables where tracing figures are used on the left and right of each page or on the left and right of parallel pages, the leaders are run from the top line.

Letter-spaced words.

200. Words in a line are letter-spaced if more than 1½ ems would otherwise be required between words. All of a short word is letter-spaced rather than only part of a long one.

Overruns.

201. Overruns are set with hanging indentation. The indentation is 1 em more than the indentation of the item or, to prevent conflict, 1 em more than the indentation of a following subordinate item.

Parallel tables.

202. Words are preferably not divided between pages in heads over parallel tables, and box heads are not divided but are repeated with the word Continued.

(a) Tables in which the tracing figures or stub or tracing figures and stub are repeated on the left of odd pages are divided tables and not parallels, and over such tables the heads are repeated with the word Continued; rules on the right of the even pages and the left of the odd pages are not used.

Reading columns.

203. Figures or combinations of figures and letters used to form a stub or inside reading column aline on left (except days of months, which aline on right) and are followed by leaders. Do. is not used under such items.

204. The indentation in reading columns is in addition to the en quad used for bear-off.

(a) A single entry under a colon line is run in, preserving the colon.

205. If the last word in a leader line runs close to the rule, an en leader is inserted if space permits; if not, a thin space is used.

206. Numerical terms, including numbered streets and avenues, are expressed in figures, even at the beginning of a sentence.

Tables in rules.

207. All figures (except em fractions, which are set flush to the rules) bear off an em quad where an em quad can be used on each side of the figures; otherwise they bear off an en quad, except that the first and last columns (including leaders and fractions) bear off an em quad from the outside rules. In tables consisting entirely of figure columns, the figures are centered in each column, alined on right.

Total lines.

208. The usual indentation of the word Total is 3 ems; but if the indentation of the line preceding interferes, Total is indented 1 em more than preceding line. It is not necessary to maintain uniform indentation of the word Total throughout the page. The word Total is supplied when not in copy.

Units of quantity.

209. Units of quantity in stub columns are placed on the right, 1-em leader from the rule. If the subject does not make a full line but is too long to permit the insertion of the unit of quantity, the line is quadded out and the unit of quantity is placed on the next line at the right, followed but not preceded by leaders.

(a) Do. is used under a unit of quantity in a stub if unit is spelled; in an independent column consisting entirely of units of quantity (either spelled or abbreviated) the do. is never used.

210. Over figure columns, units of quantity and other words used as headings, and the abbreviations a. m. and p. m., if not included in the box heads, are set in 6-point italic and are placed immediately above the figures, without periods other than an abbreviating period. Any well-known abbreviation will be used to save an overrun, but if one unit of quantity is abbreviated, all in the same table will be abbreviated. If units change in a column, the new units are set in italic, with full quad line above and no space below.

211. Units of quantity and other words used as headings over figure columns are used only at the beginning of a table or at the head of a continued page or continued column in a double-up table.

Table showing style in regard to the use of units of quantity in stub and figure columns, dashes, reference figures for footnotes, words in figure columns, plus and minus marks, use of braces, miscellaneous figures, usual form of italic and box heads, etc.

LEADER WORK

(See also Tabular Work; Abbreviations)

Leader work is a simple form of tabular work without box heads or rules. In general, leader work (except indexes and tables of contents, which are set the same style as text) is governed by the same rules of style as tabular work.

Columns.

212. A figure column is an en quad wider than the largest group of figures but not less than 2 ems.

213. If the last column is a reading column, leaders are run within an en quad of the first word. If the first column overruns, it is indented 1 em from the first word of the last column.

214. If leader work continues on a following page, the center heads and colon lines are continued.

Ditto.

215. The abbreviation Do. is capitalized and preceded by quads in stub; it is capitalized and preceded and followed by quads in last reading column; it is lower-cased when used under a unit of quantity in stub.

Dollar mark.

216. The dollar mark is used at the beginning of each statement, on the first line of double-up matter, at the head of a continued statement, and on the first line of each cut-in group. A dollar mark does not carry through leaders in leader work.

(a) In a column containing mixed amounts (as money, tons, gallons) the figures are alined on the right, and the dollar mark or other symbol is repeated before each sum of money; but if several sums of money are grouped and added to make a total, they are separated from the preceding figures by a parallel dash, and the symbol is placed at the top of the group only.

Flush items and subheads.

217. Flush items clear the figure column. Subheads are centered in full measure; if they extend to the figure column, the figure column and an equal space on the left are cleared.

Footnotes.

218. Footnote references begin with 1 in each statement, and footnotes are placed at end of statement, separated from it by two leads. Separate notes from matter following by not less than 6 points. If the leader work runs over from one page to another, the appropriate footnotes are carried on each page, being repeated if necessary. If the footnotes to leader work and text fall at bottom of page, the footnotes to leader work are placed above footnotes to the text, the two groups separated by a 50-point rule flush on the left.

Units of quantity.

219. Units of quantity or other words centered over a stub or figure column are set in 6-point italic, separated from leader work by 2 points.

The examples below show the style to be observed where there is a short colon line at left. In case of only one subentry, run in with colon line and preserve the colon.

Baltimore & Ohio R. R.:

Freight carried:

DATE LINES, ADDRESSES, AND SIGNATURES

The general principle involved in the typography of date lines, addresses, and signatures is that they should be so set as to stand out clearly from the body of the letter or paper which they accompany. This is accomplished by using caps and small caps and italic, as set forth below. Other typographic details are designed to insure uniformity and good appearance. Certain general instructions apply alike to date lines, addresses, and signatures.

General instructions.

221. Principal words in date lines, addresses, and titles accompanying signatures are capitalized.

222. Mr., Mrs., and all other titles preceding a name, and Esq., Jr., and Sr. following a name in address and signature lines are set in caps and lower-case roman if the name is in caps and lower-case or caps and small caps; if the name is in all caps they are set in caps and small caps, if small caps are available—otherwise in caps and lower-case.

223. Lines set in caps, small caps, or caps and small caps are spaced with en quads.

224. An extra lead is used, unless space is clear, between date line and text or address, address and text, text and signature, and signature and address.

Date lines.

225. Date lines at the beginning of a letter or paper are set at the right side of the page, the originating office in caps and small caps, the place name and date in italic; if the originating office is not given, the place name is set in caps and small caps and the date in italic; if only the date is given, it is set in caps and small caps. Such date lines are indented from the right 1 em for a single line, 3 ems and 1 em successively for two lines, or 5 ems, 3 ems, and 1 em successively for three lines. In wider than document measure these indentions are increased by 1 em.

ITALIC

(See also Court Work; Symbols)

Italic letters stand out prominently in a page of roman type and therefore are commonly used for words and phrases which for any purpose are to be differentiated from other text. However, as an undue amount of italic actually defeats its purpose, its use in general work is restricted as indicated.

Emphasis, foreign words, titles of publications.

237. Italic is not used for mere emphasis, foreign words, or the titles of publications unless it is specially requested and the copy is edited therefor.

Names of vessels and aircraft.

238. The names of vessels and aircraft are italicized unless otherwise provided, but in lists set in columns and in stubs and reading columns of tables consisting entirely of names of vessels or aircraft they will be set in roman.

the Friendship	the U-7
the Spirit of St. Louis	the DO-X

(a) Such names are quoted in matter printed in other than lower-case roman.

SMITH v. BROWN ET AL. (heading)

Scientific names.

240. The scientific names of genera, subgenera, species, and subspecies (varieties) are italicized; the names of groups of higher rank than genera (phyla, classes, orders, families, tribes, etc.) are printed in roman.

Words and letters.

241. The words Resolved, Resolved further, Provided, Provided further, and ordered, in bills, acts, resolutions, and formal contracts

In some classes of printing—for example, legal and historic documents—literal faithfulness to the original text is essential. The responsibility for faithfulness to original text must rest with the author, editor, or originating office. The extent to which it is desired that copy be followed should always be specifically indicated.

Copy marked “Fol.”

244. Copy marked “Fol.” is to be followed with respect to verbal expression, spelling (including compounding and unit modifiers), abbreviations, signs, symbols, figures, and italic, but not with respect to other punctuation or capitalization. In “Fol.” matter any spelling is permissible that has the sanction of any dictionary.

Copy marked “Fol. lit.”

245. Copy marked “Fol. lit.” is to be followed in all respects, including capitalization, punctuation, compounding, and even manifest errors, but not as to size and style of type.

(a) Follow the position of quotation marks in relation to other punctuation marks in matter marked “Fol. lit.” and “Fol., incl. punc.” Abbreviations do not close up, even in “Fol. lit.” matter, unless so prepared.

Copy marked “Reprint.”

246. Copy marked “Reprint” is to be followed in all respects, including size and style of type, the relative position of quotation marks to other marks of punctuation, and the closing up of abbreviations.

Copy marked “Bill style.”

247. Copy marked “Bill style” is to follow the style of the Government Printing Office Bill Style Manual.

The Bill Style Manual conforms to this STYLE MANUAL in many particulars, such as the use of figures in dates; sums of money; percentages; the numbers of articles, chapters, lines, pages, paragraphs, parts, sections (including land descriptions), and volumes; the classification of vessels (A 1); and all other instances where numbered is used or implied. Otherwise, everything is spelled out except Mr. and Mrs. Punctuation as prepared must be followed.

Unprepared copy.

248. Copy that bears no preparation will be printed in conformity with this STYLE MANUAL.

THE HISTORY OF THE

The history of the world is a vast and complex subject, encompassing the lives of countless individuals and the events that have shaped our civilization. From the earliest times, when our ancestors first emerged from the forests and caves, to the present day, the human story has been one of constant change and growth. The history of the world is a tapestry of many threads, each representing a different culture, nation, or era. It is a story of triumph and tragedy, of hope and despair, of love and hate. The history of the world is a story that we all share, and it is one that we must all understand if we are to live together in peace and harmony.

The history of the world is a story that has been told in many different ways. Some have written it as a series of events, while others have written it as a series of lives. Some have written it as a story of progress, while others have written it as a story of decline. The history of the world is a story that is still being written, and it is one that we must all contribute to. We must all share in the responsibility of creating a better world for ourselves and for our children. We must all strive to understand the history of the world, for only then can we truly understand ourselves and our place in the universe.

The history of the world is a story that is full of wonder and mystery. It is a story that has captivated the imaginations of people for centuries. It is a story that has inspired artists, writers, and thinkers of all ages. The history of the world is a story that is still being discovered, and it is one that we must all continue to explore. We must all strive to understand the history of the world, for only then can we truly understand ourselves and our place in the universe.

The history of the world is a story that is full of hope and possibility. It is a story that has shown us the power of human ingenuity and the strength of human spirit. It is a story that has shown us the capacity for human love and the potential for human greatness. The history of the world is a story that is still being written, and it is one that we must all contribute to. We must all share in the responsibility of creating a better world for ourselves and for our children. We must all strive to understand the history of the world, for only then can we truly understand ourselves and our place in the universe.

The history of the world is a story that is full of meaning and purpose. It is a story that has shown us the value of human life and the importance of human achievement. It is a story that has shown us the power of human faith and the strength of human courage. The history of the world is a story that is still being written, and it is one that we must all contribute to. We must all share in the responsibility of creating a better world for ourselves and for our children. We must all strive to understand the history of the world, for only then can we truly understand ourselves and our place in the universe.

COURT WORK

(See also Capitalization; Fol., Fol. Lit., etc.; Italic)

The style for court work differs from ordinary style as set forth below. For matters not provided for herein, the style prescribed in the preceding sections will be followed.

Supreme Court and other court records.

249. Paragraphs are made of answers in Q. and A. matter.

250. The folio number is flush, in the same line as the first word of the folio, and in a cut-in 3 ems square (unless there is 10 points of white space above or below). Indentions of paragraphs, etc., are in addition to the 3-em cut-in. In hanging indentions of headings the extra indention is carried to the end of the heading.

251. A cut-in folio is not used opposite a paragraph reading "Endorsement on cover."

252. Copy is followed literally, including capitalization (initial capitalization of words) and compounding (including unit modifiers), but not other punctuation or italic (which stands for errors only).

253. In typewritten records manifest errors of the typewriter are corrected (for example, if one letter has been struck over another or if a space appears where a letter was obviously intended to be); but if a word is used in the wrong place (for example, in for on; boot for boat), it is not changed or set in italic.

254. Words having the sanction of any dictionary are permissible, and the spelling is not changed.

255. Italic letters are used to indicate errors in spelling (for example, curely for surely), except in the names of persons and firms, in geographic names, and in foreign words that are not law terms; roman letters are used to indicate errors in words set in italic. Errors in syntax are not corrected.

256. Doublets are indicated by italicizing the repeated words or lines.

257. The names of vessels are set in roman, quoted.

258. The titles of cases are set in roman, including the abbreviation of versus.

259. An apostrophe is used to indicate the omission of one or more letters in a word; but in well-established abbreviations the period is used instead of an apostrophe.

260. A 3-em quad is used to indicate the omission of one or more words.

261. The word The is capitalized in names of legal cases as follows:

the said The B. & O. R. R. Co.

The Sun v. The Globe

262. Printing Office editorial marks must be erased before the copy is returned to the originating office. Copy preparers should make only necessary marks thereon and those lightly, with a soft pencil. Cut-in folios should not be indicated on copy, and jacket numbers should not be stamped on copy; instead, all instructions are put on the preparer's instruction sheet. The folio numbers on copy are picked up. Any matter preceding or following an original folio is marked, in pencil, with the jacket number followed by lower-case letters (for example: J. 12345a, J. 12345b, etc., to the end).

263. Preparers must indicate on the instruction sheet such information as 11-point type, cut-in folios, etc.

264. The following names and abbreviations are used by Supreme Court reporters in citations of United States Supreme Court Reports:

Cranch (abbreviated Cr.)
Dallas (abbreviated Dall. or Dal.)
Howard (abbreviated How.)

Peters (abbreviated Pet.)
United States Reports (abbreviated U. S.)
Wheaton (abbreviated Wheat.)

Briefs, decisions, exhibits, and opinions of the Court of Claims and other courts.

265. In general, copy is printed "Fol., incl. caps", but the following directions and examples must be observed.

(a) In Court of Claims opinions and opinions of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia and all circuit courts of appeals, copy is followed, including capitalization. Titles of legal cases are italicized.

266. Single punctuation is used in citations wherever possible.

267. The STYLE MANUAL is followed in testimony in Court of Claims transcripts of evidence.

268. The spelling of Indian names is followed in the use of hyphens or spaces.

269. Superior letters are not used in abbreviations unless so indicated by the copy preparer.

270. Copy is followed as to use of the singular or plural possessive referring to the United States as claimant or claimants, defendant or defendants, etc. However, if conflicting forms are used in copy, they are made uniform, either singular or plural.

claimant's brief or claimants' brief appellee's exhibits or appellees' exhibits

271. The words Question and Answer begin new paragraphs and are spelled out.

272. If questions are numbered, the number generally precedes the question.

273. In the titles of cases the first word and all principal words are capitalized, but not such terms as defendants and appellees.

274. In the titles of cases copy is followed as to the use of figures and abbreviations.

This statement is made by the defendant. (See exhibit 1.)

This statement is made in the claimant's brief (p. 65).

278. If citations are run in, semicolons are used.

279. The following differences in capitalization should be noted:

The said paper was marked "Defendant's Exhibit No. 4" (exact title).

The defendant's exhibit no. 4 was thereupon placed on file.

280. All footnotes in 12-point briefs are set 10-point leaded, and extracts in footnotes are set full measure and are quoted. Footnotes to indented matter are set full measure.

Center and side heads.

283. The responsibility for uniformity in type used for heads of coordinate rank rests with copy preparers.

284. Unless otherwise marked, center heads are set in capitals; side heads are set in lower-case, only first word and proper names capitalized. Overs for flush heads will be 2 ems unless otherwise prepared. Text heads set in capitals will be leaded unless otherwise prepared.

(a) In matter set in caps and small caps or caps and lower-case, nouns, pronouns, adjectives, prepositions and conjunctions of four or more letters, verbs (including both elements of the verb to be), adverbs, and interjections are capitalized.

285. Periods are omitted after center heads and running heads; periods are used after flush and cut-in side heads, and a period and dash after a side head run in with the text, except such terms as Article 1, Section 1.

286. Division of words should be avoided in center heads making more than one line, and the first line should be centered, not made to fill the measure by unduly wide spacing.

287. Center heads set in capitals are spaced with at least en quads between words, and the space is widened proportionately for an extended face or for letter-spaced words.

288. In heads set in capitals a small-cap c or ac, if available, is used in such names as McLean or MacLeod; otherwise a lower-case c or ac. In heads set in small caps an apostrophe is used instead of the c, but a space is used after the ac.

Citations.

(See also Reference marks and footnotes.)

289. In text a parenthetical citation at the end of a sentence is included within the sentence unless it forms a sentence in itself or unless copy is specifically marked otherwise; but if a sentence contains more than one parenthetical reference, the one at the end is placed before the period.

Division of words, etc.

(See also Center and side heads.)

290. The division of words at the ends of more than two consecutive lines must be avoided so far as possible.

291. Hyphenated words are preferably divided at the compounding hyphen.

292. A word should not be divided on a single letter; division on two letters should be avoided if possible.

293. The last word on a page and the last word of the last full line of a paragraph are preferably not divided.

294. Division of words should be minimized in leaded matter and avoided so far as possible in double-leaded matter.

295. Such abbreviations as U. S. N., D. C., M. D., B. C., a. m., and NW¼ should not be divided at the end of a line.

296. Initials should not be divided at the end of a line, and preferably they are not separated from the surname; Esq., Sr., and Jr. should not be separated from the names to which they belong.

“Et cetera”, “etc.”, “and so forth.”

297. In printing a speaker's language, the words and so forth or et cetera are used—not the abbreviation etc. If a quoted extract is set in type smaller than that of the preceding text and the speaker has summed up the remainder of the quotation with the words and so forth or et cetera, those words should be placed at the beginning of the following paragraph.

Footnotes.

(See Reference marks and footnotes, p. 143.)

Indentions.

298. In document or narrower measure the paragraph indention is 1 em.

299. Overruns in hanging indentions are 1 em more than the first line, except that to avoid conflict with a following indention (for example, of a subentry) the overrun indention is made 1 em more than the following line.

300. In matter wider than document measure the indention for paragraphs is 2 ems instead of 1 em, and the indentions on date lines, addresses, and signatures are increased by 1 em.

301. The indention of matter set in smaller type should be the same, in points, as that of the main text if the indented lines are in juxtaposition.

Indexes and tables of contents.

302. Indexes and tables of contents are set in the same style as the text, except that See and see also are set in italic. Page, section, paragraph, etc., over figure columns are set in roman.

General instructions.....	5
Capitalization (see also Abbreviations).....	16
Legends. (See Miscellaneous rules.)

(a) The figure column is 3 ems wide unless otherwise indicated.

303. In indexes set with leaders, if the page numbers will not all go in the leader line, the first number only is set in that line and the other numbers are overrun; but to save an overrun the page numbers may be run back within an em leader of the entry, with an en quad between the leader and the figures.

If page folios overrun.....	220,	And this way when overrun folios make two or more lines..	220,
	224, 227, 230, 240
This way to save overruns..	220, 224,		224-225, 230-240, 245, 246, 250-
	227, 230, 235, 238, 240, 247, 260		255, 258, 300.

304. The overrun page numbers are indented 7 ems in full measure and 3½ ems in half measure, more than one line being used if necessary. These indentions are increased as necessary to not less than 2 ems more than the line above or below.

305. In index entries the following forms are used:

Brown, A. H., Jr. (not Brown, Jr., A. H.)
Brown, A. H., & Sons (not Brown & Sons, A. H.)

306. In a table of contents, where such a word as chapter, plate, or figure is followed by a number and period in the first line and cleared in the following lines, an en quad is used after the period in the first line, and the periods are alined.

307. Subheads in indexes and tables of contents are centered in the full measure. If such subheads extend to the figure column, the figure column and an equal number of ems on the left are cleared.

Leads and slugs.

(See Spacing, p. 144.)

Legends for illustrations.

308. Legends and explanatory matter of one or two lines are centered; if more than two lines they are set with hanging indention. If an illustration is narrower than full measure and text is run at the side of it the legend is set the width of the illustration; if text is not to be run at the side of the illustration the legend is set full measure regardless of the width of the illustration, unless copy is otherwise marked.

309. Legends are leaded if the text is leaded and are set solid if the text is solid.

310. Legend lines of illustrations which run the broad way should be printed to read up; that is, the even-page legend should be on the binding (or inside) margin and the odd-page legend on the outside margin.

311. Letter symbols used in legends for illustrations are set in italic without periods and are capitalized only if so shown in copy.

312. Periods are used after legends and explanatory matter beneath illustrations.

Letters illustrating shapes and forms.

313. Letters used to illustrate shapes and forms, as U-shape(d), A-frame, T-rail, are set in gothic—case 392 for 10-point, case 391 for 8-point, and case 390 for 6-point—except that for I-beam cases 14, 13, and 12, respectively, are used. Plurals are formed by adding the apostrophe and s, as T's, Y's, etc. A gothic capital is not used in X-ray and U-boat, which have no reference to shape or form.

Numbered paragraphs or items.

314. A period and en quad are used after a number or letter at the beginning of a paragraph or item, but if parentheses are used the period is omitted.

(a) When a figure is followed by a letter in parentheses, a space is used between figure and letter; but if the letter is not in parentheses and the figure is repeated with each letter, the letter is set close up to the figure.

(b) If a figure and a letter in parentheses are both used before each paragraph, a period is used after the letter; if the figure is not repeated before each letter in parentheses but is used only before the first, the period is placed after the figure.

15 (a). When the figure is used before the letter in each paragraph—

15 (b). The period is placed after the letter.

15. (a) When the figure is used before letter in first paragraph but not repeated with subsequent letters—

(b) The period is used after the figure only.

Reference marks and footnotes.

315. For reference marks superior figures are used, separated from the words to which they apply by thin spaces, unless immediately preceded by a period or comma. Unless copy and proofs are otherwise marked, text footnotes are numbered consecutively from 1 to 99, but in a publication that is divided into chapters or articles the reference numbers begin with 1 in each chapter or article. A superior reference mark follows all punctuation marks except a dash. Two footnote references occurring together are separated by a thin space, not a comma.

(a) A thin-space bear-off is not used when asterisk, dagger, or other similar character is used for reference.

316. Where reference figures might lead to ambiguity (for example, in matter containing exponents), asterisks, daggers, etc., or italic superior letters may be used.

317. Footnotes are set in the same measure as the text to which they belong. Footnotes to indented matter are set full measure.

318. Footnotes are set as paragraphs and are separated from the text by a 50-point rule, flush on the left, with two leads above and below the rule. Two or more short footnotes coming together may be combined by the maker-up in one line, with the blank spaces equalized, provided the spaces are not less than 2 ems.

319. Unless copy is otherwise marked, footnotes to 12-point text (except 12-point briefs) are set in 8-point; footnotes to 10-point and 8-point text are set in 6-point.

Sidenotes and cut-in notes.

320. Sidenotes and cut-in notes are set each line flush on left and ragged on right, unless otherwise prepared, and are always set solid. The measure allowed for cut-in notes is 12 ems of 6-point unless otherwise marked, and the note bears off from the text, above, below, and at the side, not less than an em of the text type.

321. The cut-in note begins on the third line of the paragraph if the length of the paragraph permits.

Spacing.

322. Spacing of text is governed by the leading, narrow spacing being more desirable in solid matter than in leaded matter. Very thin or very wide spacing in the first line of a paragraph should be avoided.

323. If the last line of a paragraph follows a widely spaced line, it is spaced with en quads instead of 3-em spaces.

324. Center heads are separated from the text by slugs, the space below the head being at least 2 points less than the space above—10-point slug above and 8-point slug below in 10-point text; 8-point slug above and 6-point slug below in 8- and 6-point text.

325. "Two leads", "three leads", and similar designations marked on copy mean two leads in all, three leads in all, etc.

326. Flush heads are separated from text by two leads above and one lead below in solid matter and by three leads above and two leads below in leaded matter unless otherwise marked.

327. Unless otherwise marked, where extracts or other matter are set off from the main text by smaller type or indention, or where the introductory paragraph reads to a flush line below the extract, they are separated from the text by three leads in leaded matter and two leads in solid matter. Extracts set solid in leaded matter are separated from text by three leads.

GENERAL INFORMATION

GEOLOGIC TERMS

For the capitalization, compounding, and use of quotations in geologic terms, copy is to be followed. The following list gives many of the terms in common use. It should be noted that "Coal Measures" is used for a subdivision of the Carboniferous system; "Calceiferous" and "Magnesian" for lithologic subdivisions of the Cambrian and Ordovician, respectively; and "Red Beds" for Permian-Triassic rocks of the West; and that these terms, if used in a common-noun sense, are not capitalized or quoted. The term redbeds (lower-case, one word) is used in a technical, nonliteral sense to designate certain formations of mixed lithologic character that are predominantly red. The adjectives upper, middle, and lower are capitalized only as indicated in the list, unless the term is quoted (lower Carboniferous; "Lower Carboniferous"). Such common nouns as formation, member, group, anticline, syncline, dome, uplift, and terrace are not capitalized even if preceded by a name: Mesaverde formation, Devol anticline, Ozark uplift, etc. A dagger preceding a name (†Lafayette gravel) indicates that the name is obsolete or abandoned.

³ The belga (B.) is used only in exchange transactions.

⁵ Including Newfoundland.

⁶ Varies with the price of silver.

⁷ The pound is also the unit in all of the British colonies and territories except where a local currency exists. In a number of the African possessions the local shilling is the principal unit, and it has the same value as the English shilling. In the British West Indies the local dollar of 100 cents is used in most cases, the pound sterling being the equivalent of 4.80 local currency ($4.80).

⁸ Fractional currency in terms of the monetary unit; i. e., .50 represents one-half quetzal.

⁹ The rupee is also used in Ceylon and some of the African territories.

¹¹ Including Netherland India.

¹³ The chervonetz is the equivalent of 10 chervonetz rubles. Quotations are usually in rubles.

Announcements of the discovery of the missing members of the series of 92 elements of the periodic system require further authentication to warrant acceptance by the International Committee on Atomic Weights of the International Union of Chemistry. Examples are actinium (atomic number 90), alabamium (85), illinium (61), masurium (43), polonium (84), protoactinium (91), virginium (87). If, as, and when these are duly authenticated the fact will be announced by inclusion in the official list approved by and promulgated by the International Committee on Atomic Weights of the International Union of Chemistry.

PATENTS

Where no specific reference is made to patents or to the Official Gazette, the rules herein given apply to both classes of work. The term "patents" includes plant patents, trade-marks, designs, and reissues.

ABBREVIATIONS

Patents.

Follow copy, except in headings, in which the names of States are abbreviated. Fractions in assignments, etc., should be spelled. "Saint" should be abbreviated "St." in names of cities in the United States; sections of cities should be printed "N. W.", "E. C.", etc.

Follow copy in the use of the word "Figure" or "Fig." when followed by a numeral where reference is had to figures of the drawings.

Use "etc." in headings, but follow copy (&c. or etc.) elsewhere.

Spell out "&" wherever it appears in copy, except in the names of firms and corporations and in the signatures to trade-marks, where copy should be followed.

Official Gazette.

States.—Abbreviate (according to rule 61) the names of States except in treaties, conventions, etc., with foreign countries; laws; acts of Congress; extracts; and quoted matter, where copy should be followed. (See list of abbreviations on p. 88.)

Months.—Follow copy in treaties, conventions, etc., with foreign countries; laws; acts of Congress; extracts; and quoted matter. Spell out in everything else, except in the index, published trade-marks, and patent suits. For the day of the month, following the name, use figures only. Where preceding the name of the month, use 1st, 2d, 3d, etc., as "the 1st of January", "the 2d day of January", etc.

Street, avenue, road, etc.—Follow copy in treaties, conventions, etc., with foreign countries; laws; acts of Congress; extracts; and quoted matter, but spell out in everything else.

Citations.—Copy should generally be followed, but abbreviate section, chapter, page, etc.

Etc. and &c.—Follow copy in treaties, conventions, etc., with foreign countries; laws; acts of Congress; extracts; and quoted matter. Use "etc." in everything else.

CAPITALIZATION

Capitalize "Letters Patent" whether standing alone or followed by a numeral. Capitalize "Patent", "Trade-Mark", "Design", "Reissue", "Certificate", "Serial", "Sheet", "Plate", "Diagram", "Case", and "Division", where followed by a numeral, in any one of the following forms: "Patent No. 680,180", "my Patent No. 680,180", "Patent 680,180", "Trade-Mark No. 140,500", "Design No. 10,500", "Reissue No. 14,500", "reissued Patent No. 14,500", "Reissue Patent No. 14,900", "Certificate No. 130,500", "Serial No. 1", "Sheet 1", "Example 1", "Plate 1", "Diagram 1", "Case A", "Equation 1", "Formula 1", and "Division A." Lower-case "patent statutes", "registration No. 130,500", and "trade-mark registration No. 130,500", but "Reg. No. 13,175."

Proper nouns used as adjectives should generally be capitalized. There are a few exceptions to this rule. (Refer to list of words in common use in patents.)

Capitalize legends which are placed upon devices, drawings, blank forms, etc., for purposes of caution, direction, explanation, etc., as, "The semaphore bears upon its face the word Safety"; "As shown in Fig. 2, at the point marked Upper"; "The first column is headed Amt., the second Year"; "The figures are entered in the Rec'd column." Where more than one word is used, capitalize only the first word. Lower-case "danger position", "on position", etc.

Capitalize the principal words in trade-mark phrases, as "My trade-mark consists of the words Golden Rod Butter, distinctively displayed."

Capitalize the word "Figure" spelled or abbreviated, if followed by a numeral, where reference is had to figures of the drawings.

Canton (Switzerland and Luxemburg)

Commonwealth (Australia)

Department (France, etc.)

Dominion, District (Canada)

Duchy or Grand Duchy

Where reference is had to an individual member of an order, lower-case, as an alga (or the algæ) of the genus Chondrus.

Capitalize the principal words of titles of books, magazines, and other publications, as the British Pharmacopœia, Bulletin of the American Pharmaceutical Association, Chemical Reactions and Equations, etc.; but capitalize only the first word and proper nouns of titles of articles in books, magazines, and other publications, as, Brown, Delicacy of British Pharmacopœia test for arsenic, Journal of Pharmacy.

Capitalize the first word of titles of inventions where preceded by the word "entitled", as, The invention shown in my Patent No. 530,410, entitled "Variable-speed-transmission gearing" also capitalize the first word of titles of invention in text when referring to title in previous patent in connection with date and serial number.

Where part of an incorporated name, capitalize the word "city", as Kansas City, Oklahoma City, Jersey City, etc.; but lower-case New York city, etc.

Where abbreviations consist of single letters, capitalize the same, but not abbreviations of weights and measures, which should be lower-cased. Examples: H. P. for horsepower; R. P. M. for revolutions per minute; E. M. F. (plural E. M. F.'s) for electromotive force; NEA; C. for centigrade (but lower-case cent., etc.), should be capitalized, while lb. for pound; ft. for foot; c. c. or cc. for cubic centimeter; gm. for gram; cwt. for hundredweight; k. w. or kw. for kilowatt; mm. or m. m. for millimeter; c. g. s. for centimeter gram second; etc., should be lower-cased.

Capitalize the word "office" where reference is had to the Patent Office, but lower-case elsewhere.

Capitalize the titles of officials of the Patent Office.

Capitalize full titles of acts, as Trade-Mark Act, Spooner Act, etc.; but lower-case the word "act" where standing alone, "or act of 1905."

Capitalize principal words in description of goods in published trade-marks and in trade-mark phrases.

Capitalize Patent No. 1,780,310, but lower case British patent, No. 1,780,310, and Smith patent, No. 1,780,310.

COMPOUNDS

Patents.

Where two words are made of terms that are usually closed up, copy should be followed even though one word in heading; but prefixes should be closed up with the words to which they belong, unless connected thereto by a hyphen, when copy should be followed. Examples: Horse shoe, rail road, fire arm, grind stone, anti-friction, electro-magnet, sub-station, ferro-manganese, etc., follow copy; but close up anti friction, electro magnet, sub station, ferro manganese, etc., if they appear as two words in copy.

Official Gazette.

Follow copy in titles in labels and prints, quoted matter, laws, treaties, etc.; but compound in accordance with Webster's New International Dictionary in everything else.

FIGURES

Patents.

Follow copy, except in assignments in headings, where figures should be spelled. Change "Figure one", "Fig. two", etc., in the text to "Figure 1", "Fig. 2", etc. Follow roman numerals.

Official Gazette (decisions and miscellaneous notices only).

Follow copy in treaties, conventions, etc., with foreign countries; laws; acts of Congress; extracts; and quoted matter. Spell out figures under 10 in everything else, except figures at the beginning of paragraphs, tabular matter, enumerations, figures of reference, etc. Only a general rule can be given. Much must be left to the judgment of the copy editor.

GOTHIC

All letters and figures relating to shape should be in gothic, except I, which should be in clarendon. Where copy has tee shape, change to T shape; eye beam, change to I beam, but eye bolt; ell, change to L; in the form of an A; the A frame; the Y; in the shape of an 8. Do not quote gothic, as "A" frame. If quotes are in copy, omit them. Golf tee should be spelled, as it does not indicate shape. No gothic in heads.

ITALIC AND ROMAN

Italic must be used in the Latin names of plants and animals where reference is had to the species (as tuberosa) or to the genus followed by the species (as Asclepias tuberosa); but roman should be used where reference is had to the genus alone (as Asclepias) or to the order (as Asclepiadaceæ). Also italicize the names of vessels and titles of cases in citations, as Smith et al. v. Brown; the Brown Case (180 O. G. 306); but Brown case, without citation, should be set in roman.

Roman should be used in the Latin names of medicines, diseases, anatomical terms, chemicals and dyestuffs, geological and mineralogical terms, Latin words and phrases generally, and in titles of books, magazines, and other publications.

Where italic (to indicate emphasis) appears in copy for decisions for the Gazette, the same should be followed; but in patents only such words should be set in italic as have been marked by the copy editor, except that Latin names of plants and animals should be set in italic in accordance with the above rule, even if not so marked in copy.

MISCELLANEOUS

Notice if patent is a "division", a "continuation", a "refile", a "no fee", a "No Drawing", or has "foreign application", and make head read accordingly. All new matter supplied in the head must be queried.

In patents and designs when jacket calls for "1 sheet of drawings", make "drawing" singular throughout patent. When jacket calls for more than 1 sheet of drawings, make it "drawings" throughout patent, but follow expression "1 sheet of drawings." Where amendments do not conform to above rules, correct with a query. The word "drawing" should always be singular in trade-marks.

In formulas and equations close up all symbols, also reference letters unless separated by commas.

Care must be taken to see that claims are properly numbered. Where reference is made in a claim to the number of a preceding claim, see that the proper number is used when claims have been renumbered.

ORTHOGRAPHY

Webster's New International Dictionary, current edition, is recognized as the standard authority in the spelling and division of words. Where the dictionary recognizes different forms of spelling the same word, follow the form given in copy.

Authorities for the spelling of geographic names (local and foreign) are listed below in the order of their preference: Decisions of the United States Geographic Board; United States Postal Guide; New World Loose Leaf Atlas; Rand McNally & Co.'s Atlas; the International Postal Guide. No accented letters are used in geographic names.

The signature of firms and corporations in a trade-mark should be followed and the head and preamble changed and queried if any discrepancy exists; follow individual names as signed. When in the text a claim or disclaimer is made to any words or symbols, spelling of such words should conform in every detail to the drawing. If any discrepancy occurs, it should be queried. A defective or wrong cut should be reported to referee.

In patents signed by an executor or administrator the pronouns should be changed and queried. Example: Change "I claim" to "What is claimed", "My invention" to "The invention", etc.

The following list contains a number of words in common use in patent work. Note capitalization.

PLURALS

Follow copy in the Latin or English forms for plurals where both forms are recognized. A few are:

abacus, pl. abacuses or abaci	helix, pl. helixes or helices
antenna, pl. antennæ; E., nas	lamina, pl. laminæ
apex, pl. apexes or apices	latex, pl. latices apparatus, pl. apparatus, apparatuses	matrix, pl. matrices, not matrixes

candelabrum, pl. candelabrams or candelabra	spatula, pl. spatulas fascia, pl. fasciæ	speculum, pl. speculums or specula
frustum, pl. frustums or frusta	stylus, pl. styli or styluses

Collective nouns, such as "pair", "series", "mechanism", "goods", "type", etc., may be regarded as either singular or plural, and copy should be followed.

POSSESSIVES

Correct errors in the use of the apostrophe in the possessive case. Follow the document style. (See rule 36.)

PUNCTUATION

Patents.

Follow copy literally, except in headings, also in preambles of designs and trade-marks, which should be punctuated according to office style.

In the figure description delete all punctuation between the numeral and the verb.

Commas used for periods in decimal fractions are to be followed.

In equations, center points should be followed.

Official Gazette.

Follow copy in claims; titles in labels and prints; court decisions; treaties, conventions, etc., with foreign countries; rules and amendments thereto; laws; extracts; quoted matter; and acts of Congress. Punctuate everything else, including Commissioner's decisions and citations in all decisions.

REFERENCE LETTERS AND FIGURES

Reference figures to drawings should be set in boldface type.

When copy has capitals, use roman capitals, and when copy has lower-case letters use lower-case italic, as, the wheel A has a rim a and spokes b; the hub B is of iron; the wrapper Wr is of paper.

Quote reference letters and figures, if copy, as, the frame "A" consists of uprights "1" and "2."

Where superior reference letters are used running up to "x", "y", and "z", use the superior letter "x"; otherwise use superior multiple. Where other superior figures are used, the superior cipher should be used, and not the letter "o" nor a degree mark. Where other superior letters are used, the superior letter "o" should be used.

Follow copy as to a_1 , a_2 , $1a$, $1b$, etc., or a^1 , a^2 , 1^a , 1^b , etc. Copy should be followed in respect to the prime mark or superior "1", thus: "The wheels a' and a'' " or "The wheels a^1 and a^2 ." Some typewriters use the prime mark for "1", after passing "9", as: a'^0 , a'' , a'^2 , etc., which should be changed to a^{10} , a^{11} , a^{12} , etc. These latter cases should be indicated by the copy editor. Follow inferiors where so used in copy as: a_1 , a_2 , etc.

Since typewriters use same character for figure 1 and lower-case l, cipher and cap O, all such characters will be printed as figures unless otherwise marked. When Greek letters are used, they should be identified by name.

Where copy has prime over the inferior mark the inferior goes first followed by prime, thus: a_2' , or a_2^3 .

In foreign patents if apostrophes are used for primes, change to primes.

SIGNATURES

Avoid dividing names. If name cannot be printed in 1 line with 1 em bear off each end, center as many words as possible, following style below on balance. The following are the proper indentions for trade-mark signatures, and should be followed:

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

RULES OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON PRINTING

Attention is called to the following extracts from the rules of the Joint Committee on Printing for the publication of the Record:

3. The Public Printer shall print the verbatim report of the proceedings and debates of the Senate and House of Representatives, as furnished by the official reporters of the Congressional Record, in 7½-point type; and all matter included in the remarks or speeches of Members of Congress, other than their own words, and all reports, documents, and other matter authorized to be inserted in the Record shall be printed in 6½-point type; and all roll calls and lists of pairs shall be printed in 6-point type.

7. If copy or proofs have not been returned in time for publication in the proceedings, the Public Printer will insert the words "Mr. ——— addressed the Senate (House or Committee). His remarks will appear hereafter in the Appendix", and proceed with the printing of the Record.

9. When leave has been obtained to print (1) a speech not delivered in either House, (2) a newspaper or magazine article, or (3) any other matter not germane to the proceedings, the same shall be published in the Appendix, but this rule shall not apply to quotations which form part of a speech of a Member, or to an authorized extension of his own remarks. The official reporters of each House shall indicate on copy and prepare headings for all matter to be printed in the Appendix, and shall make suitable reference thereto at the proper place in the proceedings. Any Member may, upon request noted on the manuscript, have an authorized extension of his own remarks printed in the Appendix.

GENERAL RULES

The rules governing document work apply to the Congressional Record, except as may be noted herein. All should familiarize themselves with the exceptions and the forms peculiar to the Record.

All extracts are set in 6½-point type unless otherwise ordered by the Joint Committee on Printing.

Instructions covering the measure and the size and kind of type for parallel columns in the Record will be given to operators when necessary, as the general style will depend upon the character of the matter.

In general, operators should avoid wide spacing, especially in break lines and lines containing many points.

In resetting lines when correcting proof, operators must exercise great care to have such lines free from error.

Extreme caution must be used in making corrections in copy, and no important change should be made without authority.

Observe the lists of names of Senators and Members, committees of both Houses, and duplicate names. Changes caused by death, resignation, or otherwise must be noted. There is no excuse for error in the spelling of names of Senators, Members, or department officials. In case of doubt, the Congressional Directory will be taken as authority.

Small-cap center heads in speeches, also headings over tables, leader work, and subheads following main subject heading in the proceedings will be set in 6½-point.

Queries must not be made unless it is known that the author is to see a proof.

CAPITALIZATION

(See also Guide to Capitalization, p. 25)

It must be borne in mind that one general style of capitalization is to prevail on Record and document work.

In Senate and House proceedings and Senate and House Journals use rule VI, rule XVI, etc.

If the name of the Congressional Record is mentioned, it must be set in caps and small caps and never abbreviated, though appearing in citations.

If the name of a Senator or a Member is used in connection with a bill or other paper, as the Glass bill, the Smith amendment, etc., lower-case; but SMITH's amendment, etc.

The names of Members and Members-elect of both branches of the Congress will be printed in caps and small caps if mention is made of them. This applies also to eulogies, and notices of or references to eulogies, of deceased Senators or Members.

Certificates of Senators-elect of a succeeding Congress are usually presented to the current Congress, and in such cases the names of the Senators-elect must be in caps and small caps.

Names of Members of Congress must be set in lower-case in votes, in lists set in columns, in the list of standing and select committees, in groups (three or more) of names of Members and non-Members, in contested-election cases, and in lists of pairs. (See under Pairs, p. 193.)

Observe that the names of all persons not certified Members of Congress are to be set in lower-case: that is, names of secretaries, clerks, messengers, and others.

Follow capitalization of proposed boards, commissions, services, etc., in reprints of bills and titles thereof, but not in extracts.

CONTRACTIONS

If in a Senator's or a Member's language the copy shows such contractions as don't, can't, won't, didn't, couldn't, and wouldn't, spell in full, as do not, cannot, will not, did not, could not, and would not. This is not intended to apply to extracts and anecdotes. The abbreviation etc. must be made to read and so forth, except in extracts.

FIGURES

(See also Numerals, p. 95)

If an expression contains two or more enumerations, some definite and others indefinite (or not accompanied by subject), spell the indefinite and put the definite in figures (unless under 10), as four or five thousand spent out of $6,000 appropriated; $300 saved and a thousand dollars spent; a hundred dollars is more to me than $500 to you or one thousand to him; if copy reads "six millions of dollars", it must be changed to read "$6,000,000."

Use figures for all enumerations of weights and measures and duration of time.

All grouped enumerations, any of which is 10 or more, are to appear in figures in examples such as the following: There were 20 males and 8 females, 28 in all; six horses; 10 horses; six horses, nine sheep, and five cows; 25 bulletins, containing 352 pages; the population of Chicago is more than 2,000,000; a hamlet of 18 persons. If complicated, and if enumeration is 100 or less, spell, as twenty-five 6-inch guns, two $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch boards, ten 5-cent pieces, 125 6-inch guns, etc.

Isolated numbers of 10 or more, as 50 guns, 10 trucks, 11 soldiers, etc.

If sums of money are used as adjectives, express in figures, as a 5-cent piece, a $10 note, a $1,000 house, a $1,000,000 expenditure, a $1,200 clerk (even if copy reads a twelve-hundred-dollar clerk):

If an expression of weight or measure is used as an adjective, use figures, as, a 1-foot rule, a 2-bushel basket, a 5-acre lot, a 4-ton stone, a 3-pint pail, a 1-grain pill, a $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch pipe.

Follow copy in such expressions as twelve hundred gallons were used, fourteen hundred dollars was expended, or 1,200 gallons were used, $1,400 was expended; a thousand dollars, a hundred pounds, two thousand million dollars.

ITALIC

In titles of cases use italic, with lower-case roman v., including contested-election cases, as Smith v. Brown. In roman small-cap lines use a lower-case italic v. for versus.

Names of vessels must be set in italic in all cases.

If it is desired that italic should be used other than as provided for herein, the word or words must be underscored and "Fol. ital." written on each folio. Do not construe this to mean "Ordered", "Resolved", "Be it enacted, etc.", titles following signatures or addresses, or the part of date lines which should be set in italic.

The prayer delivered in either House must be set in 7½-point roman. If prefaced or followed by a quotation from the Bible such quotation must be set in 7½-point italic.

MISCELLANEOUS

Do not quote any communication carrying date and signature.

Do not put quotation marks on center heads in 6½-point extracts unless center heads belong to original matter.

In newspaper extracts put place and date at beginning of paragraph. Use caps and small caps for name of place and roman lower-case for date. Connect date and extract by an em dash. If date and place are credited in a bracket line above extract, they need not be used again at the beginning of paragraph. (See p. 124 under Date Lines, and p. 195 under Credits.)

Except in bill work proper, each Whereas in a preamble must begin a new paragraph. The Therefore be it must be preceded by a colon and be run in with the last Whereas. Be it will run in with the word Therefore, but must not be supplied when not in copy. Note the following:

Whereas it has been deemed advisable to, etc.: Therefore be it

Resolved, That the committee, etc.

Use single punctuation in citations of cases and statutes, as Brown v. Robinson (122 U. S. 329; R. S. p. 310, sec. 1748).

In the case of Smith against Brown. (A general or casual reference to a case.)

In the case of Smith v. Brown (122 U. S. 329). (A citation of a specific case.)

In One Hundred and Twenty-fourth United States Reports, page 329.

Indent star lines 2 ems on each side. Use seven stars.

If a title is used as part of the name of an organization, vessel, etc., spell, as General U. S. Grant Post, No. 76, Grand Army of the Republic.

The order of subdivision of the Constitution of the United States is as follows: article I, section 2, clause 3.

If an exhibit appears at the end of a speech, the head Exhibit should be set in 6½-point caps, preceded by a 3-em dash.

In extracts containing votes the names must be run in, as Lewis of Maryland, Maverick, and Ramspeck, etc.

In Senators' or Members' language, if the copy indicates number, use the abbreviation no.; when the word is numbered, use that form.

In text, reference to Senate and House reports and Senate and House executive and miscellaneous documents the No. must always be used, whether in copy or not, as House Report No. 75, Executive Document No. 20, Miscellaneous Document No. 37.

In the Senate, under House Bills Referred, Message from the House, Enrolled Bills Signed, Concurrent Resolutions Referred, Presidential Approvals, and in lists of bills and resolutions, the numbers must come first and read "An act" (or resolution), whether in copy or not, as "H. R. 722. An act", etc. In the House the same rule applies under Message from the President, Enrolled Bills Signed, Message from the Senate, Concurrent Resolutions Referred, and Senate Bills Referred. This means that bills and resolutions received in the House from the Senate or in the Senate from the House, when in lists, shall have the number begin the paragraph.

Seven-and-a-half-point breaks in 6½-point matter should be paragraphed, as follows:

The report goes on to say that—

Observe this closely—during the fiscal year 1934 there were, etc.

Conference report and statement.

Conference reports and statements to be set in 6½-point.

Use 6-point slug before and after conference report and statement.

In the Senate place the names of Senators first. In the House the names of Members are to be first.

Follow copy literally in the report. Observe the form Amendments numbered 1, 2, 3, etc., and when the amendment is to make an independent paragraph the phrase And the Senate [or House] agree to the same will be a paragraph by itself; otherwise it will be run in after the amendment with a semicolon. Examples of each are given in the report following.

In the statement change numbered, when in copy, to no., as amendment no. 1, but do not supply no. or amendment if omitted in copy; otherwise regular style will prevail.

Note particularly that in Senate copy of conference reports the form Amendment numbered 1, etc., is generally stricken from the beginning of the paragraph by the clerks.

NOMINATIONS, REPORTS, DOCUMENTS, LAWS

GENERAL RULES FOR NOMINATIONS

The rules governing document work apply to nominations and withdrawals, except as here noted.

Matter is set in 10 point, double leaded.

All nominations take current date, and the legislative day added when necessary. (Sample of each form is shown on following pages.)

In withdrawals, follow the date on copy and also the wording of the date line.

Spell everything except year, day of month, section, page, paragraph numbers, and any serial number where the word numbered is used or implied.

Omit the words I nominate in all nominations, no matter how or where written in copy.

In single nominations (that is, where only one person is named) where the words I nominate begin a paragraph in copy, indent the paragraph 6½ ems. This applies to Army and Navy as well as civilian nominations. (See sample 1, p. 234.)

In Army and Navy nominations where only lists of names are given, set flush in half measure where there are four or more in a group. If less than four, set each name as a paragraph, full measure. (See sample 2, p. 234.)

Where civilian nominations have more than one person named, each name is set as a separate nomination (except where otherwise prepared), following the form of postmasters; that is, each separate carries the same nomination number, with the black superior figure, and is set as a plain paragraph. Indent these 1 em only. (See sample 3, p. 235.) Those that are to be grouped (a number of names printed as one nomination) are nominations to or promotions in the Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Public Health Service, Military Service, Naval Service, and Diplomatic and Consular Service (except where consul, minister, or ambassador is named to a specific country).

If nomination contains an explanatory note, enclose note in parentheses and place just before the blank date line at bottom.

Note that the word confirmed is set in italic in the recommendation line.

Reinstatement, Reappointment, or similar statement, if a sentence at the end of a nomination, is placed in parentheses. (See sample 3, p. 235.)

The President's signature indicates the end of a nomination, but is printed only in a withdrawal (see sample 5, p. 237), or in a withdrawal and nomination combined.

Capitalize the word Arm when synonymous with Corps, as Cavalry Arm, Infantry Arm, etc.

A nomination confirmed without reference to a committee is printed as a message only.

Style of messages and Executive Journal extracts is shown in samples 6 and 7, on pages 237 and 239, respectively.

Note the use of the words I nominate in paragraphs in the messages.

MR. SPEAKER, MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

Two days ago a number of gentlemen from the House of Representatives called upon me and with complete propriety presented their reasons for asking me to approve the House of Representatives' bill providing for the immediate payment of adjusted-service certificates. In the same spirit of courtesy I am returning this bill today to the House of Representatives. As I told the gentlemen who waited upon me, I have never doubted the good faith lying behind the reasons which have caused them and the majority of the Congress to advocate this bill. In the same spirit I come before you dispassionately and in good faith to give you, as simply as I can, the reasons which compel me to give it my disapproval.

And I am glad that the Senate by coming here in joint session gives me opportunity to give my reasons in person to the other House of the Congress.

The Latin alphabet is universally used in Denmark, with the addition of æ, ø, and aa.

The c, q, w, x, and z are used only in words of foreign origin and in proper names; aa is not a double a, but a single letter; it is sometimes placed first in the alphabet. The sound of av is like au in the German word lau, aj, eg, and ej like i in pie, and oj like oy in boy.

Accents

Ordinarily accents are used only in foreign loan words and in certain proper names.

Capitalization

In the official Danish language all nouns are capitalized; however, some modern authors tend to follow the English usage.

Syllabication

A consonant between two vowels usually goes with the following vowel (ta-le); when two or more consonants occur between two vowels, the last consonant generally goes with the following vowel (brænd-te); sk, sp, st and str are usually not separated, but added to the following vowel (hvi-ske, læ-spe, bed-ste, ven-stre). Compound words are divided according to their component parts (Kirke-gaard, ind-til).

Punctuation

The punctuation in the official Danish language rigidly follows the clausal construction of the sentence, especially in regard to the use of the comma; however, many modern writers tend to follow the English usage.

¹ J is like the English semivowel y, and therefore at the end of words forms the diphthongs aj, ej, oj, and uj.
² Ŭ forms with a and e the diphthongs aŭ (pronounced like ou in house), and eŭ (pronounced like the words eh and who, quickly uttered, without any aspirate, eh-hoo).

GRAMMATICAL RULES

1. There is only a definite article, la, alike for all sexes, cases, and numbers; it may be dispensed with.
2. Substantives terminate in o, and j is added for the plural. There are two cases: Nominative and accusative; the latter being obtained by the addition of n to the nominative. Other cases are expressed by means of a preposition (de for genitive, al for dative, and per or other prepositions according to sense for the ablative).
3. The adjective ends in a, and cases and numbers are as with the substantive. The word pli indicates the comparative, and plej the superlative.
4. The cardinal numbers are not declined.
5. Personal pronouns are mi, vi, ŝi, ĝi (referring to thing or animal), si, ni, vi, ili, oni; possessive pronouns are formed by adding the adjective termination, and declension is as with substantives.
6. There is no change in person or number with the verb; as is the termination for the present tense, is the past tense, and os the future tense. For the conditional mood the termination is us, and for the infinitive, i. Participles with an adjectival or adverbial sense end in ant; active past, int; active future, ont; passive present, at; passive past, it; passive future ot. All forms of the passive are formed by using a corresponding form of the verb esti and a passive participle of the required verb. De is the preposition with the passive.
7. Adverbs end in e, and degrees of comparison are as with adjectives.
8. All prepositions require the nominative case.
9. All letters are pronounced.
10. Accent is always on the penultimate syllable.
11. In compound words the principal word comes last.
12. Omit the word ne where there is another negative word.
13. Words take the termination of the accusative to indicate direction.
14. Every preposition has a definite and constant meaning, but if in doubt use the preposition je, which has no independent meaning, although the accusative may be used without a preposition.
15. Foreign words are used without change, receiving only the spelling of the Esperanto.
16. The final vowel of the substantive and the article may be replaced by the apostrophe.

Esperanto is a "made" language intended by its inventor, Dr. Zamenhoff, to become a ready medium of world communication. Radicles are taken from various languages to which a system of suffixes is added to provide a grammatical structure.

Syllabication

A syllable is necessary for every vowel regardless of how many come together; there are no double vowels: tra-i-re, bo-a-o, me-ti-ist-o, zo-o-lo-gi-o.

Punctuation

The present custom is for each writer to follow the rules of his own language since it is impossible to change the meaning of a sentence by punctuation, as is often the case in English.

Capitalization

Considerable latitude is permitted in the use of capital letters, but certain seemingly international styles have been adopted. Names of countries are capitalized, but the names of races, with the correlative adjectives and adverbs, are not: Francujo, France; franco, a Frenchman; franca, French; france, in French. The same rule applies to churches, orders, and political parties. The names of the days of the week are not capitalized.

The last seven letters, b, c, f, q, x, z, and å, occur only in foreign words and proper names and are never found at the beginning of pure Finnish words.

Since 1883 the Suomi, or Finnish language, has, in common with Swedish, been an official language in Finland.

The language has no articles, and the verbs have but two tenses, past and present. The future tense is expressed by circumlocution. There are 15 cases. The principal stress is always on the first syllable.

So-called long vowels are aa, ää, ee, ii, oo, uu, yy.

In the following diphthongs the sound of the individual letters must not be lost: uo, yö, ie, au, eu, iu, ou, äy, öy, ai, ei, oi, ui, yi, äi, öi.

Syllabication

A syllable consists of a vowel or diphthong with or without one or more consonants, as, a-pu, help; au-rin-ko, sun.

A consonant between two vowels belongs to the following syllable.

Two consonants may be divided and double consonants, as kk, are always divided.

In words having three consecutive consonants the last will go with the following syllable.

² The dieresis shows that the vowel bearing it is divided in pronunciation from the preceding vowel, as in Noël.

Un has no English equivalent; an nearly like the English taunt; ou like oo in food; in like an in sank; on like on in long; gn like ni in onion.

Twenty-five letters of the Latin alphabet are used, the w being added only for foreign words.

Punctuation is practically the same as in English.

Em dashes take a space before and after (—) not closed up as in English, and are also used to denote change of speaker in dialog.

Capitalization

Capitals are used the same as in English, except that proper adjectives, names of seasons, months, days of the week, titles, and the personal pronoun je (I) are not capitalized. In proper names of persons taken from the Italian the article is lower-cased, as le Dante; otherwise use the form La Fayette. In names of places the article is lower-cased, as le Havre.

Use roman small caps for the centuries—example: xix^e siècle.

Capitalize the following: Years of the Republican calendar (l'An IV), acts of plays (l'Acte V), volumes of books (Tome IX), titles of rulers (Louis XIV), and the numbered divisions of Paris (le XV^e arrondissement).

Capitalize the first word and all proper nouns in the title of a book. If the title commences with Le, La, Les, Un, or Une, capitalize also the second word. Examples: Origines du culte chrétien; Les Origines du culte; La Reine Margot.

In vivid personifications the nouns personified are capitalized, as Ici habite la Mort (Death abides here).

Historical events (la Révolution) also take the capital.

The equivalents of streets, etc., are lower-cased, as rue de la Nation, avenue de l'Opéra, route Saint-Denis, boulevard Saint-Laurent.

Observe the forms used in the following terms: l'Académie française; la Légion d'honneur; Louis le Grand; son Éminence; l'Église when referring to the church as an institution, and l'État when denoting the nation, as le Corps d'État, le Conseil d'État.

Accents

The orthographic accents used (acute, grave, and circumflex) must not be confused with the tonal accent that stresses certain syllables of words. In French there is no mark to indicate stress on any particular syllable.

Capital letters are likewise accented except where the protruding accent is likely to interfere with alinement, as in solid matter. Small caps carry all accents where indicated.

Hyphens

Geographic names containing the prepositions en, de, and sur are hyphenated, as Saint-Valéry-en-Caux. Hyphens are also used in spelled numbers under 100 with few exceptions. See list on following page.

Spacing

No space is used after the apostrophe, as l'arbre, l'homme, d'autrement.

Syllabication

Division is made on a vowel or diphthong before a consonant, as jeu-nesse. The combinations bl, br, ch, cl, cr, dr, fl, fr, gl, gn, gr, gh, ph, pl, pr, th, tr, and vr must not be separated, as in ré-pu-bli-que, dé-peu-ple-ment, cé-lé-trer, dé-cret, au-tre-ment, ou-vrier, qua-drille, dé-pê-cher, ca-tho-li-que, té-lé-gra-phi-que, Vau-ghan, but where the g and n have separate sounds they are divided, as ag-nus, di-ag-nos-ti-que.

Any other two consonants are divided, as en-suite, im-mense, juil-let, ec-clé-sias-ti-que.

As a rule, two vowels are not separated: mi-nuit; théâ-tre.

It is allowable to divide a monosyllable ending in mute e, as mar-che; hom-me.

In dividing hyphenated phrases such as ira-t-il, and présen-te-t-on the t must go over.

No division should be made on x or y, as in Alexan-dre, roya-liste.

One-letter divisions, as in a-près, are not permissible, nor should a word be divided on one letter in combination with an elision, as l'école, qu'avant, except in narrow measure.

The ligature œ is inseparable.

Article, titre, chapitre, scène, and figure are abbreviated only when they occur in parentheses.

Dates and figures are spelled in legal documents, as l'an mil huit cent quatre (the year one thousand eight hundred and four).

The language has no accents; the diacritical marks used are ä, ö, ü.

The Latin alphabet is coming into general use in German printing, and all 26 letters are used, with the addition of the ß or sz, which is used only in the lower case.

Where the em dash is used in text in parenthetical phrases, put a space on each side of the dash —, using a thick or thin space, according to the spacing of the rest of the line.

Capitalization

Initial capital letters are used as follows:

- The first word of a sentence.
- In poetry, usually, the first word of each line.
- The first word of a direct quotation; also the first word after a colon. An exception to this rule occurs when the matter following is merely complementary to the preceding. For example, "At home he was seldom, to the Court he never came: if you would find him, you must needs seek him in the forest." Lower case after interrogation and exclamation points if the phrase following is directly connected, as in "Where do we go from here?" the man said; and "Give me liberty or give me death!" cried Patrick Henry. The first word of titles of books also has a capital initial.

All nouns are capitalized, although there is an ever-growing movement in Germany to lower case common nouns.

Pronouns relating to the person addressed, as in letters, etc., as well as titles of honor, are capitalized.

The custom of capitalizing proper nouns used as adjectives is quite variable. We have Schillersche Trauerspiele, Grimmsche Märchen, but also die lutherische Kirche and mohammedanische Pilger.

Any word used as a noun (for example, der Nächste, die Armen, das Rechte, Gutes, Böses, etc.), takes a capital initial.

In solid matter, where the Umlaut (¨) on capital letters is likely to cause trouble in alinement, it will be omitted and a lower-case e added after the capital, as Ae, (Aerger), Oe (Oel), Ue (Ueber).

Hyphens

In words made up of two parts, where one part is common to both words, use the hyphen as follows: Feld- und Gartenfrüchte (field- and garden produce), the word früchte being common to both, and though a noun, is lower-cased; but use Haftpflicht-Versicherungsgesellschaft und -Versicherte (liability-insurance company and -insured), because the first is a compound word made up of two nouns.

Combinations of two or more words are printed without hyphens, Fluss Wasser Stoff Säure becomes Flusswasserstoffsäure.

Syllabication

The following rules are based on the Prussian "Book of Rules":

I. Polysyllabic words are divided, as a rule, phonetically—i.e., as they naturally divide themselves when pronounced slowly and distinctly, as Wör-ter-ver-zeich-nis, Ge-schlech-ter, Ueber-lie-fe-rung. Syllables consisting of but one letter should not be divided.

NOTE 1.—Avoid the somewhat common division -ung in Lie-fer-ung, Schreib-ung, which is contrary to the above rule.

NOTE 2.—(a) If there be but one consonant, carry it over, as tre-ten, nä-hen; also (b), ch, sch, sz, ph, and th have but a single sound and are therefore indivisible, as Bü-cher, Hä-scher, Bu-sze, So-phie, ka-tho-lisch; x and z are considered simple consonants, He-xe, rei-zen.

Where there is more than one consonant, the last is carried over, as An-ker, Fin-ger, War-te, Rit-ter, Was-ser, Knos-pe, tap-fer, kämp-fen, Karp-fen, Ach-sel, krat-zen, Städ-te, Ver-wand-te.

When using German text, ð is changed to ff when division is necessary, as Saf-fe.

St is never divided, as ha-sten, be-ste, ko-sten, Klo-ster, mei-ste, Fen-ster, For-ster, Pfing-sten.

(1) These rules are inflexible, but the last does not apply in the case of äs-the-tisch, since this is not a separation of st, but rather of s and th.

(2) In simple non-German words the phonetic combinations of b, p, d, t, g, and k in connection with l and r are not separated, as Pu-bli-kum, Me-trum, Hy-drant.

(3) Retain also the phonetic combination gn, since, in most cases, it will be found phonetically correct, as Ba-gno, Ma-gno-lie, Ma-gnet, Si-gnet, etc. Kompag-nie is, however, an exception because here the g is really silent and the last syllable begins with an n.

II. Compound words are separated into their physical parts and these are then treated as simple words, as Diens-tag, Tür-an-gel, Emp-fangs-an-zei-ger, Vor-aus-set-zung. This rule applies also in certain cases where it appears phonetically incorrect, as hier-auf, hin-aus, dar-über, war-um, wor-an, be-ob-ach-ten, Voll-en-den.

This is also the case in certain compound words of foreign origin, as at-mosphä-re, Mi-kro-skop, In-ter-es-se, but if the constituent parts of a foreign word are unknown, proceed as directed in (a) and (b) of Note 2.

Compound geographic names are no exception to this rule, as Frie-den-au, Schwarz-ach, etc.

III. An old rule prohibiting the division of vowel combinations has been modified to permit division if the vowels do not dissolve, forming a diphthong. This rule also applies in the case of those foreign groups of vowels that cannot be separated into distinct separate sounds in pronunciation, as the French oi in coiffeur, oy in royalist, ay in rayon, ea in orgeade, as well as the English ea in Lear and ee and ea in beefsteak. It is also self-evident that in such words as Trauung and Kasteiung the separation of the final -ung is permissible.

Prefixes be and ge are also separable from words beginning with a vowel, as be-ar-bei-ten, be-er-ben, ge-ar-tet, ge-eb-net.

Aside from these exceptions, vowels should not ordinarily be separated, although indicated in the following cases, when unavoidable due to narrow type measure:

(a) When the first vowel is stressed, as Hy-peri-on, Mu-se-um.

(b) When both are equal but pronounced separately, as lini-ie-ren, Sper-ma-to-zo-on, In-di-vi-du-um.

(c) When a short word cannot possibly be divided otherwise, as Oze-an.

(d) When each vowel retains its own sound, as Ela-in, Ka-per-na-um, kre-iren, Zel-lu-lo-id.

Where the object of the second vowel is merely to lengthen the sound of the first, do not separate them, as Aachen, Moos.

NOTE 3.—In printing, a two-letter run-over is permissible only in very narrow measure.

IV. Where space is limited there are certain other permissible divisions that are entirely contrary to the foregoing rules. Glit-sch(e)st is a case of this kind; the word glitschst, having but one syllable, is indivisible, but by adding the e it may be divided: glit-schest.

V. If a compound noun is run over so that the second or third part of the compound begins the next line, the latter must not be capitalized. Do not use—

but Gepäck-

annahme.

With German text the round s is used in dividing only in those cases where it would have been used had the word not been divided—i.e., at the end of a prefix or component part of a compound word and in a few words of foreign derivation, as Blasphemie, Molluske, konfiszieren, Konfiskation, kosmetisch, Kosmogonie, Tschia, Tschimo, viszeral, Escorial, Escapade, Sanskrit, Susquehanna, disputieren; elsewhere the long f is used, as Drechsler, Messer, etc.

The Greek language uses 24 letters. Each letter has at least two forms, the majuscule, or upper-case, and the minuscule, or lower-case. The larger, or capital, letters are very like those used by the Greeks of the classical period; the smaller letters are derived from the cursive script used at a very much later period. The use given herewith is that taught generally in American schools and colleges.

Five of the lower-case letters have two forms each: α is used in text; α, as a symbol in mathematics; ε and ε are rare, never used as symbols; φ φ, in text and as symbols; σ, initial or medial; s, final.

Forms

The form σ is used at the beginning or in the middle of a word; the form s at the end of a word only. Various fonts of type, especially the older fonts, had variants for certain of the characters, notably for θ, β, and φ. These variant characters can generally be used indiscriminately and interchangeably.

The later manuscripts had many hundreds of ligatures, a remnant of the shorthand of the period. The earlier printers had a great many of these cast in type, but they are not generally used today.

There is the relic of the primitive Greek alphabet remaining in the use of three ancient characters as numerals, Ϟ, digamma, or Ϛ, stigma, used for 6; Ϟ, koppa, used for 90, and Ϟ, sampi, used for 900. The only other occasion for the use of these characters is in paleography.

Attention is called to the breathings, the rough (´) which gives the sound of h to the letter on which it is written, and the smooth (˘). Every initial vowel takes one or the other of these breathings. It is written over the second letter of a diphthong, and in front of capital letters. Initials ν and ρ take the rough breathing above them, and doubled ρ was formerly written ρρ, but modern usage eliminates the breathings. The smooth breathing should not be confused with the apostrophe, which is used at the end of a word to indicate an omission.

Accents

Three accents are used in Greek, the acute (´), the tilde (circumflex) (˘) and the grave (˘). These may be combined with the breathings to give a number of "sorts", the use of which involves a knowledge of the language.

GREEK DIACRITICAL MARKS

˘ lenis	˘ lenis grave	˘ tilde asper
˘ asper	˘ asper acute	˘ dieresis
˘ acute	˘ asper grave	˘ dieresis acute
˘ grave	˘ tilde	˘ dieresis grave
˘ lenis acute	˘ tilde lenis

The Greek marks of punctuation are the comma (,), the colon-semicolon (:), the period (.), and the mark of interrogation (;). As the ancient Greeks wrote without any breaks, even between words, these marks are of quite recent origin, and are inserted where editors think they should go, generally as in English.

Pronunciation

Scholars think that the double consonants φ , χ , θ , ζ , ξ , and ψ , originally sounded both of their component parts, but that later they took on a single sound.

The letter γ before κ , γ , χ , and ζ took the sound of n in ink. The letter ρ , when with a rough breathing, had a sound something like hr.

The pronunciation of the principal diphthongs is:

$αι$ as ai in aisle

$ει$ as ei in rein

$οι$ as oi in toil

$υι$ as ui in quit

$αυ$ as ou in our

$ευ$ as eu in feud

$ου$ as ou in you

The diphthong $\etaυ$ can only be approximated by the sounds eh-oo pronounced quickly together.

The improper diphthongs α , η , ω , are pronounced like a, η, ω, respectively.

There is a division of opinion among modern scholars as to the pronunciation of ancient Greek. Some think that the pronunciation of the modern Greek is more nearly like the ancient than the ordinarily accepted scholastic pronunciation.

Capitalization

As the ancient Greeks did not know the lower-case letters, they had no scheme of capitalization. The modern use is to capitalize proper names and the first word of a sentence. Poetry does not capitalize the first word of a line, unless under the above rule.

Syllabication

Each Greek word has as many syllables as it has vowels or diphthongs. The following rules, based on ancient tradition, are used in divisions:

(a) Single consonants, combinations of consonants which can begin a word, and mutes followed by μ or ν , are placed at the beginning of a syllable.

In Greek there are found to be 41 combinations of consonants that are used to begin words. They are:

$\beta\delta$, $\beta\lambda$, $\beta\rho$, $\gamma\lambda$, $\gamma\nu$, $\gamma\rho$, $\delta\mu$, $\delta\nu$, $\delta\rho$, $\theta\lambda$, $\theta\nu$, $\theta\rho$, $\kappa\lambda$, $\kappa\mu$, $\kappa\nu$, $\kappa\rho$, $\kappa\tau$, $\mu\nu$, $\pi\lambda$, $\pi\nu$, $\pi\rho$, $\pi\tau$, $\sigma\beta$, $\sigma\theta$, $\sigma\kappa$, $\sigma\mu$, $\sigma\pi$, $\sigma\tau$, $\sigma\varphi$, $\sigma\chi$, $\tau\lambda$, $\tau\mu$, $\tau\rho$, $\varphi\theta$, $\varphi\lambda$, $\varphi\nu$, $\varphi\rho$, $\chi\theta$, $\chi\lambda$, $\chi\nu$, $\chi\rho$.

(b) Other combinations of consonants are divided.

(c) Compound words are divided into their original parts.

These numerals, except the cardinals from 5 to 100, are regularly declinable according to the rules of the language. The exceptions are not declinable.

The numeral characters take an acute accent after them, from 1 to 999. To place an accent below and to the left of a character multiplies it by 1000: e.g., $\alpha' = 1$, $\alpha = 1000$, $\alpha\lambda\gamma' = 1933$.

Chronology

The ancient Greeks divided time into periods of four years, called Olympiads, the first year of the first Olympiad beginning in the middle of the summer of 776 B.C. Each year was divided into twelve months, but there was no division into weeks.

The seasons were called $\eta\rho$, spring; $\theta\acute{\epsilon}\rho\omicron\varsigma$, summer; $\acute{\omicron}\pi\acute{\omega}\rho\alpha$, autumn, and $\chi\epsilon\iota\mu\acute{\omega}\nu$, winter.

After the rise of the Roman supremacy the Julian calendar was adopted, with the Latin month names transliterated. After the advent of Christianity the weekly system was adopted, with names of the days as in modern Greek.

Months

Ἑκατομβαιῶν	Hecatombion	About July
Μεταγαιτνιῶν	Metagetnion	August
Βοηδρομιῶν	Boëdromion	September
Πυανοσιῶν	Pyanopsion	October

Ἐλαφηβολιῶν	Elaphebolion	March
Μουνιχιῶν	Mounichion	April
Θαργηλιῶν	Thargelion	May
Σκιροφοριῶν	Scirophorion	June

The modern equivalents are, of course, only approximate, as the Greeks had not calculated the year as accurately as more modern mathematicians have. The first day of Hecatombion was intended to fall upon the summer solstice; but it actually varied from the middle of June to the first week in August.

Modern Greek is very similar to classical Greek, being the direct descendant of that language. There are, at present, two slightly differing forms of modern Greek, the literary, or written form, and the popular or spoken, dialectal form. As practically all printed matter is in the literary form, the following rules concern that form; but certain popular pronunciations will be indicated as needed.

The modern alphabet is the same as that used for the older language. The pronunciation of some of the letters differs from that ordinarily used for the ancient Greek. It is given in the table.

Remarks

The character σ is used in initial and medial positions in a word, the character ς in the final position. Variant forms of other letters have no fixed rule for use.

The combinations $\gamma\gamma$ and $\gamma\kappa$ are pronounced as ng in England, and nch in anchor. Before χ and ξ the γ has the sound of ng (nasal).

N-final before π -initial is pronounced as m, in which case the π is pronounced as b.

DIPHTHONGS.—The “improper” diphthongs α and η are pronounced as a and η, respectively.

The pronunciation of the diphthongs is as follows: Λ like ϵ ; ϵ like ϵ ; ι , υ like η (ee); υ as ou in group. The diphthongs $\alpha\upsilon$, $\epsilon\upsilon$, $\eta\upsilon$ are pronounced before all vowels and the consonants β , γ , δ , ζ , λ , μ , ν , ρ , as av, ev, eev, respectively, before θ , κ , ξ , π , σ , τ , φ , ψ , as af, ef, eev, respectively.

The popular language introduces a number of palatalizations into its pronunciation, notable among which is the prefixing of an ι (or a letter having an ι -sound, generally υ) when the ι takes the consonantal sound of γ .

Accents and breathings

Modern Greek employs the same accents and breathings as the ancient language, and under practically identical rules. Every word, with a few exceptions has an accent on one of the three last syllables. Every initial vowel carries a rough or a smooth breathing. The initial letters ρ and υ always carry the rough breathing, and the combination $\rho\rho$ is usually written with a smooth and a rough accent. The rough breathing does not affect the pronunciation in any way.

Capitalization

Majuscles (capital letters) are used on title pages and in headings, much as in English, at the beginning of a sentence, on all proper nouns, on the titles of high-placed officials, and on the designations of corporations, associations, etc. In letters, etc., the pronoun of address is usually capitalized.

Punctuation

The comma, the period, and the exclamation point are the same as in English and are used similarly. The semicolon and the colon are represented by a point above the line. The question mark resembles the English semicolon. The scheme for quotation marks is the same as in the western languages.

Syllabication

Modern Greek forms a syllable for each vowel or diphthong. A single consonant belongs to the following syllable. Two consonants divide, except that any two consonants that may begin a Greek word are given to the following syllable; further, three consonants will be affixed to the following syllable if the first with the second, or the second with the third can begin a word. Compounds may be divided on the compound.

A list of the letters which may begin a word can be found under Greek (classical), syllabication, page 70. This can be used in modern Greek.

NUMERALS.—Modern Greek uses the Arabic figures for ordinary number work. Where western languages use roman numerals, the modern Greek uses the same scheme of letters as used by classical Greek.

There are no exceptions to these rules of pronunciation.
Punctuation is practically the same as in English.

Accent

Stress is without exception on the first syllable.

Capitalization

Forms of address in letters, etc., and titles are capitalized: Felséges Uram (Your Majesty); Méltóságod (Your Lordship).

Proper names and those referring to God are capitalized.

Adjectives formed from proper names are not capitalized: budapesti (of Budapest); magyar (Hungarian).

Syllabication

Simple words are divided at the end of a line so that where two vowels follow one another they are separated: fi-am, mi-enk, ti-e-id.

Where two consonants follow one another, they also are separated: nap-pal, er-dő.

Where a single consonant occurs between two vowels, it goes with the next syllable: vá-ros, va-dász. This rule also holds good where the consonant is a double one: gy, cz, ly, ny, sz, ty, cs, zs (a-gyag, e-cset, e-czel, a-nya, a-tya, ró-zsa).

Two combinations of consonants occurring together in one word are abbreviated: ssz instead of szsz; but when they are divided, the original spelling is restored: hossz-szu.

Compound words are divided according to their construction: rend-őr, meg-áll.

Syllabication

A single consonant between two vowels is always carried over; in case of two or more consonants, sound combinations must not be separated.

Combinations of two consonants are divisible if the first is a liquid; if one of the liquids, l, m, n, or r, is the first of the consonants, divide on these: Sar-co, com-pi-ti, quin-di-ci, par-la-re, dol-cez-ze. If the first consonant is not a liquid, the entire combination is carried over: Ri-spo-sta, de-sti-no, lu-stri, se-sto, que-sta.

Do not separate combinations representing a single sound, as ch, gh, gl, gn, sce, sci, scia, scio: Po-chi, lun-ghez-za, fi-glia, bi-so-gno, cre-sce-re, u-sci-re, la-scia-re.

Double consonants are divided: Quel-lo, af-flit-to, fac-cio, fug-gi-re, oc-chi-o, vec-chi-o, cac-cia.

Combinations of three consonants are divided on the first, except where the first is an s not belonging to a prefix: Sem-pre, men-tre, in-con-tro, com-pren-do, dis-gra-zia, but lu-stri, re-gi-stro, co-stret-to, me-schi-no.

Diphthongs, triphthongs, and sound combinations with i (semivowel) in ci, gi, gli, are not separated. Vowel combinations which are not diphthongs may be separated: e-go-is-mo.

Groups of two vowels with accent on the first are not separated: O-céa-no, gé-o-gra-fía, Béa-tri-ce. If the first is a, e, or o and the second carries the accent they are divided: Ma-é-stro, pa-ú-ra, te-á-tro, cre-ò, po-é-ta, so-á-ve. If the first is i or u, they may or may not be divided: Vi-sio-ne, gra-zio-so, but ri-ar-so, tri-ón-fo, ru-i-na, flu-en-te.

While it is permissible, it is not well to divide so as to carry over a single vowel, as orari-o, and word groups with an apostrophe must not divide on the apostrophe, as all', coll', etc., but are divided on the first l, so that the second l and the apostrophe begin the next line, as del-l'albero; un'ar-te.

The space after the apostrophe is no longer required.

Capitalization

Capitalize all proper nouns, names of the Deity, the initial word of a sentence or a line of poetry, but lower case names of the months and proper nouns when used adjectively.

Capitalize adjectives when forming an integral part of a proper noun, as Alto Adige.

In book titles capitalize the first word and all proper nouns: Storia della diplomazia europea in Italia.

Accents

The grave is the only accent used and occurs on the final vowel of a word, indicating that the voice rests on that syllable; it also serves for the distinction of monosyllabic words.

The apostrophe indicates that a vowel has been left out, and may occur either at the beginning or end of a word, e.g., sopra 'l letto, on the bed; l' opera, the work, etc.

O	o	o in rot, also o in globe

² k and s are now usually substituted for c.

³ Many mute d's found in older spelling are now omitted; d was also formerly used in many words to express the sound t, where t is now used.

⁴ In former spelling g was used for k in many words, where k is now used.

⁵ The letter e is now often used for this sound, where x was formerly used.

⁶ Usually written ö and printed ø.

⁷ The form aa was formerly used, but å is now preferred.

Norway has two official languages, "riksmål" and "landsmål".

The "riksmål" was in the past often called "Dano-Norwegian", because, under strong Danish influence, its written form was almost identical with Danish. The development has been in a distinctly nationalistic direction and there are now many differences between Norwegian "riksmål" and Danish, both in grammar, spelling, and vocabulary.

The "landsmål" is based upon the dialects, which have developed from the Old Norse, free from Danish influence. Both languages are taught in the schools and used in the government service.

The Latin alphabet is universally used in Norway, with addition of the letters æ, ø or ö and å or aa. Æ and ø are not diphthongs but separate letters, likewise å, although it may be written aa, is not a double a but the 29th letter in the alphabet, and usually found in that place in dictionaries. C, q, w, x and z are used only in foreign words and proper names. Even in words of foreign origin they are preferably avoided by substituting k or s for c, kv for q, v for w, ks for x, and s for z.

Capitalization

Capital letters are used only at the beginning of a sentence, or after a full stop, after colon and quotation marks, in proper names and in the personal pronouns De, Dem and Deres. Proper names used as adjectives and the names of months and the days of the week are not capitalized.

Syllabication

Where one consonant stands between vowels, divide before the consonant. Of one or more consonants, the last only is carried over. Compound words are divided so that the component parts remain intact, regardless of the consonant rule.

Punctuation

English rules for punctuation will apply.

Punctuation is practically the same as in English.

The Polish has six words consisting of but one letter each: w, in; z, with; i, and, also; a, and; o, about; u, by.

Accent

Stress is invariably on the next to the last syllable.

Syllabication

1. Divide on a vowel followed by a single consonant (ch, cz, dz, dź, dż, rz, sz, and szcz being treated as single consonants, cannot be divided), as chł-o-pak, cho-dak. Vowels are a, ą, e, ę, i, o, ó, u, and y (ą, ę, and ó not properly accentual).

2. Divide on the first of two or more consonants (szcz, zd, and zg are not separable), as an-te-nat, jutr-z-nia.

3. The following vowel and consonant combinations are inseparable: bi, fi, gi, gie, ki, kie, mi, ni, pi, and wi.

Remarks

Nouns and adjectives ending with an m in the singular change their ending to ns in the plural, as homem (homens), bem (bens).

Pronouns appended to verbs are preceded by a hyphen as praz-me, louvando-nos, dar-lhe-hei.

Do not put a space after the apostrophe, as in d'aquelle, n'estas.

The sign $ is used as follows in Brazil: 234:583$120, meaning 234 contos, 583 milreis, and 120 reis.

Punctuation marks are used in the same manner as in English.

Capitalization

Capital letters are used for proper names, titles of books, plays, etc., and the first word of a sentence.

Adjectives derived from proper nouns are lower-cased.

Syllabication

Divide on a vowel, as e-di-fi-cio.

Divide on the first of two consonants, except lh (fi-lho), nh (se-nho-ra), bl, br, ch, cl, cr, ct, dr, fl, fr, gl, gn, gr, ph, pl, pr, pt, st, th, tr. But if a consonant precedes st, the s remains with the first consonant, as in de-mons-tra-ção, cons-ti-tui-ção.

Certain prepositions (inter, post, etc.) before vowels should remain intact: inter-cambio, post-operatorio, but in-te-resse.

The combination of two vowels should not be divided, such as ao, au, eu, ia, io, iu, ou, ui, uo, uu, etc.

The nasal diphthongs are distinguished by the tilde (~) placed over the first vowel, and must not be divided, as ãe, ãi, ão, õe.

Do not divide the triphthongs eia, éia, eão, ião, oei.

REFORMED PORTUGUESE ORTHOGRAPHY

On September 1, 1911, the commission appointed on February 15 of the same year for the purpose of revising the national language, made its report to the Minister of the Interior. The commission recommended the adoption, with very slight changes, of "Ortografias Portuguesas," a volume containing 183 pages, which had been published by the Academy of Sciences of Lisbon in 1902, and further that it be adopted for all governmental publications and institutions of learning.

On June 15, 1931, the Provisional Government of the Republic of Brazil, the largest and most important Portuguese-speaking country in the world, issued a decree making extensive and somewhat radical changes in the orthography of the language "for the purpose of securing uniformity in the national language." The new orthography had been adopted previously by the Brazilian Academy of Letters, and the decree directs that it be used in all public departments, educational institutions, the Official Journal, and in all other official publications. A decree dated August 3, 1933, provided that after January 1, 1935, only those textbooks conforming to the decree of June 5, 1931, will be used in the public schools. However, its official use has since been abandoned.

The following is a free translation of the essential portions of the decree:

MUTE CONSONANTS

Do not use any consonant that is not sounded:

autor not auctor	aluno not alumno
sinal not signal	salmo not psalmo adesão not adhesão

but do not change the words—

abdicar	recepção	egípcio	espectador
acne	caracteres	egípcio	expectativa
gnomo	optar	egiptólogo	mnemônica or any other words in which the letters bd, cn, gn, pç, ct, pt, pc, or mn are sounded separately and distinctly.

Double letters.—Do not double consonants:

sabado not sabbado	belo not bello
acusar not accusar	chama not chamma
adido not addido	pano not panno
efeito not effeito	aparecer not apparecer
sugerir not suggerir	atitude not attitude

Exceptions.—(a) The letters r and s are doubled for emphasis:

barro	parra	passo	russo, etc.
carro	cassa

(b) The c is doubled or used with the ç when each is sounded separately:

secção	seccionar	infeccionar	sucção, etc.
seccional	infeccção	infeccioso

(c) The letters r and s are doubled in words having a prefix ending in a vowel:

prorrogar	prorromper	arrasar	assegurar
prerrogativa	pressentir	(from raso)	(from seguro)

THE LETTER H

Retain the initial, median, and final h, (a) when it conforms to the etymology of the word:

hoje	homem	hora	honorário, etc.
------	-------	------	-----------------

(b) In words having a prefix and a complete Portuguese word:

deshabitar	deshumano	inhumano	rehaver, etc.
deshonra

(c) When used in combination as ch, lh, or nh to form arbitrary sounds:

chave	malha	lenho	manha, etc.
chapéu	velho

(d) In interjections: oh! ah!

Drop the h, (a) when it occurs in the middle of a word, except as above noted:

sair not sahir	cair not cahir
compreender not comprehender	exumar not exhumar
coorte not cohorte	proibir not prohibir

(b) In future and conditional pronominal forms of verbs:

dever-se-á not dever-se-há	dir-se-ia not dir-se-hia, etc.
escrever-se-á not escrever-se-há

Where it occurs at the end of a word:

Jeova not Jehovah	raja not rajah
--------------------------	-----------------------

CHANGES FROM INITIAL SC

The initial s has been dropped in words like—ciencia	cetro	cisão	cintilar

cena	cetico	centelha	ciático also when used with a prefix:

precientífico	preciência, etc.
---------------	------------------

USE OF THE APOSTROPHE

NOTE.—Retain the k in abbreviations of quilo, quilogramo, quilolitro, and quilômetro, as k, kg, kl, km. Although it does not belong to the Portuguese alphabet, the k is used in foreign proper names and foreign words which have been adopted into the language. Limit its use to—kantismo	kantista	kaiser	kaiserista

kappa (Greek)	Kepler	kepleria	kepleriana
kermesse	Kiel	Kiew	kummel

PROPER NOUNS

Portuguese or translated proper nouns, whether personal or locative, are written with the final z when terminating in a long syllable:

Quieroz	Luiz	Tomaz	Andaluz
Garcez	Queluz

When the last syllable is short use the final s:

Alvares	Dias	Fernandes	Nunes
Peres	Pires

NOTE.—The name Jesus and Paris retain the s.

Retain the corresponding vernacular forms of spelling already in use in the case of foreign proper names:

Antuerpia	Berna	Bordéus	Cherburgo
Colônia	Escandinavia	Escalda	Florença
Londres	Marselha	Viena	Algeria

NOTE.—Wherever such exist, vernacular names for those in foreign languages are to be preferred. Retain, however, the original forms of those that are not adapted to the Portuguese language:

Anatole France	Byron	Conte Rosso	Carlyle
Carducci	Musset	Shakespeare	Southampton

DUAL FORMS OF SPELLING

Where two forms have been in use, adopt the following (also in their derivatives and compounds):

ENDINGS IN Ã, ÃO, AM

Use ã and not an in words where the last syllable is stressed:

amanhã	maçã	talismã, etc.
--------	------	---------------

in the feminine of words ending in ão in the masculine—aldeã	cristã	irmã, etc.

-------	--------	------------

and the monosyllables—

lã	vã	sã, etc.
----	----	----------

Use ão, and not am, in the case of monosyllables:

cão	chão	vão
-----	------	-----

in the stressed words—

coração	verão	alcorão
---------	-------	---------

in the future form of the verbs—

amarão	deverão	farão
--------	---------	-------

and in other words which are now written either ão or am— acórdão	bênção	órgão	órfão sótão

NOTE.—The tonic syllable of words ending in ão must carry an acute accent as shown in the case of the five examples given above.

Use am in the unstressed terminations of the verbs:

amam	amavam	amaram	disseram
fizeram	expuseram

DIPHTHONGS

The diphthongs ae and ao will be written with i and u:

pai	cai	sai	amais, etc.
grau	mau	pau

The diphthong eo is replaced by éu or eu:

céu	véu	teu, etc.
chapéu	meu

The diphthong iu replaces io:

feriu	partiu	viu
-------	--------	-----

The diphthong oi replaces oe:

ançois	doi	heroi, etc.
--------	-----	-------------

NOTE.—When these vowels do not form a diphthong, no change is made:

aérides	aéreo	cãos	caótico
teologia	rio	tio	oeste
oeta	teleologia

Write ao and not au when it is a combination of the preposition a with the article o.

Retain the diphthongs ãe, õe, and ue:

mãe	anões	dispões	pões
tabeliães	azues

USE OF THE LETTER G

Retain the median g in the following, also in their components and derivatives:

imagem	eleger	legitimo	fugir

THE PRONOUN LO

Retain the forms lo, la, los, las: (a) with the infinitives of the verbs:

amá-lo	ofendê-la	possuí-los	repô-las
--------	-----------	------------	----------

(b) With the verbal forms ending in s:

and also when they end in z—

di-lo	fá-los
-------	--------

(c) With the pronouns nós, vós, and the form eis:

vo-lo	no-la	ei-lo
-------	-------	-------

NOTE.—These pronouns are connected by a hyphen and the tonic vowel of the verb is accented.

THE LETTER X

In words taking x, s, z, cs, ss, ch, their prosodic values (s, z, cs, ss, and ch) are retained:

excelente	exato	fixe	proximo

SYLLABICATION

Divide words phonetically according to the spelling, and do not separate them into the elements of derivation, composition, or formation:

subs-cre-ver	sec-ção	de-sar-mar	in-ha-bil
bi-sa-vô	e-xer-ci-to	ex-ce-der	cons-ti-tui-ção

In order to do this readily, observe the following rules:

(a) Separate double letters:

ar-ras-trar	pas-sa-gem	suc-ção
-------------	------------	---------

(b) The s of the prefixes des, dis remains with the first syllable when followed by a consonant:

des-di-zer	dis-con-ti-nu-ar
------------	------------------

If followed by a vowel, it is carried over to the next syllable:

de-sen-ga-nar	de-sen-vol-ver	de-si-lu-são
---------------	----------------	--------------

(c) Where two consonants are pronounced separately, the first is retained with the preceding syllable:

con-tac-to	re-cep-ção	es-pec-ta-ti-va
------------	------------	-----------------

(d) Do not separate diphthongs:

neu-tro	nai-pe	rei-na-do	au-to
i-gual (i-guais)

(e) Separate vowels of equal force:

co-or-te	co-or-dê-na-da
----------	----------------

as well as consecutive vowels that do not form a diphthong—

vo-ar	po-ei-ra	pro-e-mio	me-ú-do ci-ú-me

THE HYPHEN

Separate compound words whose different elements retain their phonetic independence with a hyphen:

para-raios	guarda-pó	contra-almirante
------------	-----------	------------------

NOTE.—Do not use a hyphen between the elements in the made-up words:

claraboia	parapeito	malmequer	malferido
-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------

ACCENTUATION IN REFORMED PORTUGUESE

Use the acute accent on bisyllabic or polysyllabic words where the stress is on the last syllable, and which terminate in i or u, whether or not followed by s:

aquí	tupí(s)	colibrí(s)
perú(s)	urubú(s)

RULES GOVERNING THE USE OF WRITTEN ACCENTS

1. Differentiate between stressed and unstressed words and distinguish the predominant syllable where there are more than one.

2. Distinguish words that are spelled the same, but differ in either pronunciation or meaning and grammatical function.

There are monosyllabic, bisyllabic, and polysyllabic words:

pá	pára	parada
----	------	--------

There are monosyllabic and bisyllabic stressed words:

dá	pára
----	------

as well as unstressed words:

da	para
----	------

In bisyllabic words the first syllable usually receives the stress: mares, but if the second, that carries the accent mark: marés.

In polysyllabic words when the stress is on the last syllable the accent mark is used: falará; when on the penultimate, the mark is omitted: falara, but when on the antepenultimate, it is used: faláramos.

Words in which the last syllable is predominant are called "acutes" or "ultimates." If the next to the last syllable is predominant, they are called "grave", "perfect", or "penultimate." If the predominant syllable is that next to the penultimate, it is called "antepenultimate" or "prepenultimate."

No Portuguese word carries the stress on a syllable preceding the antepenultimate syllable, except in cases of pronouns connected by hyphens, where the stress will remain as in the original verbal form, regardless of how many syllables there are: dávamos-to, dávamo-vo-lo.

Where a written accent is necessary, use an acute on the stressed vowel in i and u and in the case of a, e, o, when open:

fará	maré	portaló
difícil	útil

Use the circumflex on a, e, and o, closed:

câmara	mercê	avô
ânsia	indulgência	brônzeo

but—

fímbria	núncio
---------	--------

The tilde serves to indicate the stress in words not otherwise indicated:

varão órgão maçã órfã

capitães

The grave accent serves to designate, wherever convenient or necessary to the correct pronunciation of a word, the value of the vowels a, e, and o, regardless of whether or not they are stressed, but especially where they are not:

à sòzinho pêgada fácilmente

môlhada

The dieresis over unstressed i or u indicates that it does not form a diphthong with the preceding vowel:

saimento

saüdar

But if the vowel should be stressed, use the acute—

saída

saúde

Use the dieresis also on the u, if followed by e or i, in combinations of gu and qu where the u is to be sounded—

freqüência

agüentar

argüir

WORDS THAT DO NOT TAKE THE WRITTEN ACCENT

(a) Unstressed monosyllabic and bisyllabic words:

o(s)	a(s)	lo(s)	la(s)	no(s)	na(s)

(c) Verbal forms ending in am or em where the penultimate is the prominent syllable:

(d) Stressed monosyllabic words with a final i or u, whether or not followed by s:

vi(s)	cru(s)
-------	--------

(e) Stressed monosyllabic and bisyllabic words, and polysyllabic words terminating in a nasal vowel, diphthongs, whether or not followed by s:

lã(s)	maçã(s)	sai(s)	arraís	mau(s)	sarau(s)
som	sons	atum	atuns

Also those followed by any other consonant where the stress is on the last syllable:

mar	der	ser	dor	mal	canal
painel	funil	farol	azul	cruz	Artur
mão(s)	verão	varões

(f) Bisyllabic and polysyllabic words terminating in a(s), e(s), or o(s), where the penultimate syllable is stressed:

casa(s)	camada(s)	camarada(s)	trave(s)	parede(s)

(g) Bisyllabic and polysyllabic words, having the stress on the penultimate syllable, which end in i or u, whether or not followed by s:

WORDS THAT TAKE THE WRITTEN ACCENT

(a) Those ending in a(s), e(s), or o(s) with stress on the last syllable:

pá(s)	sé(s)	vê(s)	mês	pó(s)
pôs	fará(s)	maré(s)	avó(s)	avô(s)
mercê(s)	alvará(s)	jacaré(s)	português	portaló(s)

(b) Bisyllabic and polysyllabic words with stress on the last syllable and ending in i(s) or u(s):

alí	aquí	escreví	tupí(s)	colibrí(s)	anís	funís (pl. of funil)

(c) Bisyllabic and polysyllabic words ending in em or ens with stress on the last syllable:

vintém	vinténs	armazém	armazéns
cecém	cecéns	contém	conténs (fr. verb conter)
porém	Jerusalém	Belém

(d) Bisyllabic and polysyllabic words ending in a nasal vowel, diphthong, whether or not followed by s, or by any other consonant, with stress on the penultimate syllable:

órfã(s)	órfão(s)	louváveis	louváveis
fácil	faceis	têxtil	têsteis
cônsul	sável	sáveis	cadáver
éter	mártir	sóror	alcáçar
Sófar	açúcar	gêrmen	líquen
Félix	córtex	sílex

(e) The diphthongs éi, éu, ói, with open e or o are always stressed:

reís	batéis ¹	véu(s)	chapéu(s)	soís ²
róis	herói(s)	jóia	gibóia

(f) The a of the suffix âmos of the first person, plural of the preterit, to distinguish it from the first person, present:

louvâmos (cf., louvamos=louvâmos).

(g) Monosyllabic and bisyllabic words stressed to distinguish them from other unstressed homographs:

quê	porquê	pôr ³	pára ⁴	péla
pélo	pêlo ⁵	pólo ⁶	pêra

(h) All words stressed on the antepenult:

prática	ânimo	ânsia	férvido
gênero	gêmeo	gênio	pêssego
fêmea	concêntrico	tísico	tirocinio
fímbria	próximo	próprio	antimônio
lôbrego	brônzeo	úbere	lúgubre
único	núncio	cadáveres	árvore(s)
múltiplice(s)	múltiplo(s)	quádruplo(s)

Also the verbal forms stressed on the antepenult—

louvávamos	louváramos	louvaríamos	devíamos
devêramos	deveríamos	puníamos	puníamos
puniríamos	louvássemos	devêssemos	puníssemos
sáíssemos	fizéssemos

² Cf., verb sois.

³ Cf., por, a preposition.

⁴ Cf., para, a preposition.

⁵ Cf., pelo, pela, prepositions for the articles lo, la.

⁶ Cf., polo, preposition for the article lo.

(i) Use the circumflex on the e and o when stress is on the penult, ending in a(s), e(s), or o(s), closed, as well as in those having the same spelling where the vowels are open:

Substantives		Verbs
rêgo	rôgo	rego		rogo
Present dêmos		Preterit demos
Closed	-----sêde	côrte	côr	mêdo
Open	-----sede	corte	cor	medo

(j) Use the acute accent on stressed i, e, o, and u where they do not form a diphthong with the preceding vowel:

país	saída	fáisca	Taígeto
saúde	balaústre	baú

(k) Do not use the accent before nh, nd, and mb, nor before any consonant, except s, which does not begin a syllable:

bainha	ainda	Coimbra	juiz
ruim	paul	cair	sair

but

juízes	caíres	saíres
--------	--------	--------

(l) Where o, i, or u do not form a diphthong with the preceding vowel and are unstressed use the dieresis instead of the acute:

saímento	paísagem	saüdar	abaülado
----------	----------	--------	----------

(m) The dieresis is also used in the combinations gu and qu, where the u is to be sounded:

consequência	agüentar	argüir
--------------	----------	--------

But if the u is the predominant vowel, use the acute:

apazigúe

(n) Use the grave accent to indicate that the unstressed a, e, or o are open:

àquele(s)	àquela(s)	àparte (substantive)
aquele(s)	aquela(s)	aparte (verb)

Also in homographs where a vowel is mute:

prêgar	pregar (de prego)
molhada (de molho)	molhada (de molhar)

(o) To avoid mistakes in reading, the acute accent is replaced by the grave as follows:

1. In derivatives, whether augmentatives or diminutives, formed with the letter z:

má, màzinha, màzona	avó, avòzinha
órfã, òrfãzinha	anéis, anèizinhos

2. In those adverbs ending in mente in whose primary form the vowel carries the acute accent:

rápido, ràpidamente	benéfico, benèficamente
exótico, exòticamente	lícito, lèitament ^e
último, ùltimamente	fácil, fàcilmente só, sòmente

but—

contraído, contraídamente	miúdo, miüdamente
---------------------------	-------------------

The circumflex designates the closed e and o and is used in monosyllabic, as well as bisyllabic and polysyllabic homographs; it is, however, omitted in dor, poço and cera, for example, since there are no such words as dór and céra, and the verb posso is spelled with the ss which distinguishes it from poço.

Cortês, cortêsmamente	sêco, sêcamente
sôfrego, sôfregamente	cômico, cômicamente
cristã, cristãmente	vã, vãmente

Omit the written accent in homographs where there is no question as to the meaning; thus we use the circumflex on—

sêco	sêca	lôgro
------	------	-------

to distinguish them from the corresponding verbal forms—

seco	seca	logro
------	------	-------

With the e or o, open, omit the written accent in the plural, as—

secos	logros
-------	--------

but retain it in sêcas to distinguish it from the verbal form secas.

Also use vaidoso(s), vaidosa(s) without the accent on the penultimate syllable, even though the pronunciation is vaidôso, vaidôsos, vaidôsa(s).

The open o in the plural of the different substantives is the same as the closed o in the singular:

tijolo (tijôlo)	tijolos (tijôlos)
-----------------	-------------------

but—

trôco	trocós	troco (verb)
-------	--------	--------------

The words espôso, espôsa(s) take the written accent because of the verbal forms with the open o, esposo, esposa(s), but the plural esposos does not take the accent because it is not a homograph.

Write pôr with the circumflex to distinguish it from the preposition por, but—dispor	propor	expor

--------	--------	-------

dispense with the written accent.

The circumflex is used on the e in the following because the stress is on the last syllable:

português	cortês	têm
-----------	--------	-----

In the following the written accent is omitted because the stress has passed from the last to the next to the last syllable:

portugeses	portuguesa(s)	corteses
------------	---------------	----------

The accent is placed on ârvore(s) because stress is on the antepenultimate syllable; arvore(s) (verb) does not take it because stress is on the penultimate.

The imperfect and conditional verb forms, as louvaria	deveria	puniria

louvava	devia	punia

take the accent if the stress is on the antepenult, as—louvaríamos	louvávamos	deveríamos

devíamos	puniríamos

also on the penult of a form ending in a diphthong—

louváveis	louvaríeis	devíeis
deveríeis	puníeis	puniríeis

but—

saía	tê-lo-á
------	---------

The accent is used in all persons of the imperfect tense:

saía	saías	saía	saíamos
saíeis	saíam

because the i does not form a diphthong with the preceding a.

Use the written accent in proper nouns under the same conditions as in common nouns:

Pôrto	pôrto (to distinguish it from the verb porto)
Setúbal	Pontével	Pedrógão	Antônio
Tomé	Nazaré	Belém	Águeda

Compound words retain their appropriate accents:

mãe-d'agua	pára-raios	pesa-papéis
------------	------------	-------------

The Russians use the Cyrillic alphabet, which has been modified so that it bears some resemblance to the Latin alphabet.

Punctuation is very similar to the English usage.

Capital letters are used in beginning sentences, for proper names, in addresses in letters, and in words referring to the Deity.

The з in the prefixes воз, вэ, из, наэ, паэ, when it precedes с, is dropped.

Syllabication

1. A single vowel, with or without one or more consonants, constitutes a syllable.

2. Where a vowel is followed by but one consonant, the syllable ends on the vowel, the consonant beginning the next syllable. Example: па-ри-па.

3. Where a vowel is followed by more than one consonant, the syllable ends with the first consonant. Example: за-в-тра; сол-дат.

4. The semiconsonants ъ, ь, and й, when they occur within a word, terminate a syllable.

5. The prepositional prefixes без, до, пере, вы, на, не, от, за, пре, чрез, раз, and воз must remain intact.

6. The consonant combinations ств, ст, стр, бл, вл, мл, нл must not be separated.

7. Where two or more words are used to form a compound, divide so as to keep each component part intact.

Transliteration

The Russian language being phonetic, transliteration is simply a matter of substituting the proper English values for the respective Russian letters, as Полтава = Poltava.

The following important points should, however, be carefully observed:

1. ъ and ь are mute and indicate only that the consonant preceding such letter is, respectively, hard or soft.

быль = byl' = a tale.

NOTE.—The apostrophe (') is used to indicate the soft consonant.

2. ѣ and е are to be transliterated by e only when hard, by ie when soft:

весь = ves' = all.

поле = polie = field.

ѣмъ = iem = I eat.

REFORMED ORTHOGRAPHY AND GRAMMAR

The movement to reform the Russian orthography and grammar had its origin long before the Revolution. It was sponsored by many of the scientific and scholastic academies and institutions of the Empire, but resulted in no official action until after the Revolution. The old style is presented in this Manual, however, because of the great number of the old works that are still extant. The student will bear in mind the various changes given below when dealing with present-day literature.

By the decree of the Council of the People's Commissars of October 10, 1918, relating to the introduction of the new orthography (Collection of Laws and Decrees of the Workers' and Peasants' Government no. 74, of October 17, 1918, item 804) all governmental publications, periodicals (newspapers and magazines) and nonperiodical publications (learned works, collections, etc.), and all documents and legal papers must, beginning with October 15, 1918, be printed according to the new rules of spelling given below. This spelling has also been introduced in all schools.

1. Replace the letter ѣ by е (колено, вера, семя, в избе). (Cf. nos. 9, 10.)
2. Replace the letter ѳ everywhere by ф (Фома, Афанасій, кафедра).
3. Drop the letter ѣ at the end of words and parts of compound words (хлеб, посол, меч, контр-адмирал), but retain it in the middle of words as a sign of division (сѣмка, разъяснѣть, адъютант).

NOTE.—The apostrophe (') in the middle of words is also used instead of ѣ.

4. Replace the letter і everywhere by и (учение, Россія, пиявка, Иоанн, высокій).

5. Write prefixes из, воз, вз, раз, роз, низ, без, чрез, через before vowels and hard consonants with з but replace з by с before mute consonants (к, п, т, х, ц, ч, ш, щ, ф) also before с (расставаться, чрессѣдельник, беспокойство, чересполосица).

NOTE.—This rule differs from the old one in that the prefixes без, роз, чрез, через were also added to this group and that з is now replaced by с before с.

6. In the genitive case of adjectives, participial adjectives, and pronouns of masculine gender write оро, еро instead of аго, яго (доброро, пятого, котороро, синеро).

NOTE.—Adjectives whose roots end in ж, ч, ш, щ, have in the genitive case еро instead of оро (высшего, текущего, свежего, кипучеро).

7. In the nominative and accusative plural of feminine and neuter adjectives, participial adjectives and pronouns write ые, ие instead of ыя, ія (добрые, старые, синие, какие). (Cf. no. 4.)

8. Use они instead of онѣ in the feminine nominative plural.

9. Write in the feminine одни, одних, одними instead of однѣ, однѣх, однѣми.

10. Use ее instead of ея in the feminine genitive singular personal pronoun.

NOTE.—In connection with the discontinuance of ѣ, the letter ѐ is sometimes used to designate the fluctuating e sound (ѐлка, вѐсѣ).

11. Of all the rules on syllabication only the following are retained: When dividing words a consonant (one or the last in a group of consonants) immediately preceding a vowel must not be separated from this vowel; likewise a group of consonants at the beginning of a word must not be separated from a vowel; the letter й before a consonant must not be separated from the preceding vowel; also a final consonant, final й and a group of consonants at the end of words must not be separated from the preceding vowel. In dividing words having prefixes, a consonant at the end of the prefix, if preceding another consonant, is not to be carried over to the next line.

			Ü	ü

¹ Softer than in English, produced by joining the lips without pressure; between vowels, almost v.² Between g and e or i, silent, rendering the g hard.

Punctuation

Punctuation is practically the same as in English, and, in addition, inverted question and exclamation marks are used at the exact beginning of the question or exclamation.

Si es así, ¿qué he de hacer? Pero, ¡ay de mí! no es posible.

Quotation marks begin the first paragraph of a dialogue. The succeeding paragraphs sometimes start with em dashes instead of quotation marks, and the latter are not used until the dialogue ends.

—¿Es así, señor?

—Sí; es verdad.

—¿Cómo se puede averiguarlo?

—No sé; pero es la verdad."

Capitalization

The English style of capitalization is followed, with few exceptions.

Adjectives derived from proper nouns are lower-cased, as las mujeres colombianas (the Colombian women) and los cruceros brasileños (the Brazilian cruisers).

The first word of a question occurring within a sentence is lower-cased, as:

Quando viene la noche, ¿cómo se puede ver?

Note the following forms of capitalization:

El señor Enrique Palava; el señor don Enrique Palava.

Days of the week and months begin with a lower-case letter.

In titles of books only the initial and proper nouns, are capitalized: Historia crítica de España y de la cultura española.

Accents

(1) Words ending in n, s, or a vowel, and emphasized normally on the last syllable but one (penultimate), dispense with the accent mark.

(2) Words ending in a consonant except n or s, and emphasized normally on the last syllable, dispense with the accent mark.

(3) Words not included in (1) and (2) require an accent on the syllable carrying the emphasis, as é-po-ca, se-gún, in-cóg-ni-to. This includes verbs to which pronouns are appended, as págaselo.

Words having a dual meaning, as mas (but) and más (more), do not fall under these rules, and the proper accent should be carried.

Usually but one accent is used in a word, regardless of the number of syllables.

Formerly the words, a, e, o, and u were accented, but this has become obsolete. However, changes should not be made without authority, as some authors follow the old custom.

When the word o (or) is used adjoining numerals, as 14 ó 15, the accent should be used to prevent confusing the o with a cipher.

Syllabication

Words are usually divided on a vowel: a-si-mi-la-ción, pa-la-bras.

The letter y is considered a vowel when standing alone, or at the end of a word. At the beginning of a word or syllable it is treated as a consonant.

The following combinations must not be divided: ai, au, ei, eu, ia, ie, io, iu, oi, ou, ua, ue, ui, uo (a-li-via-dor). This does not apply when either letter carries an accent (pa-is, ri-o), which permits the vowels to be separated, but exceptions are made in certain cases.

The combinations of ay, ey, oy, and uy may be separated only when followed by a vowel, but must not be separated when followed by a consonant or when occurring at the end of a word:

but—	ha-ya	re-yes	a-rro-yo	cu-yo
	rey-na	voy-me	Go-doy	muy

A consonant occurring between two vowels should be carried over: com-po-sición.

Do not separate the following combinations of two consonants:

bl	br	cl	cr	dr	fl	fr
gl	gr	pl	pr	tl	tr

Two separable consonants standing between vowels are divided: ac-ta, chas-co, cuer-da, pron-to.

The letters ch, ll, and rr are never divided and always begin a syllable, as ria-chue-lo, gue-rrí-lla, fe-rro-ca-rril.

Prepositional prefixes form a separate syllable, as: des-agradable, pre-colom-biano; but when the prefix is followed by s and another consonant, the s is joined to the prefix. Examples: abs-tener, cons-trucción, but ab-solver.

A syllable cannot begin with s followed by a consonant, as cir-cuns-tan-cia.

The liquid consonants l and r, when preceded by any consonant other than s, must not be separated from the consonant, except in uniting parts of compound words. Examples: ha-blár, po-dría, sub-lu-nar, ab-ro-gar, es-la-bón.

Double c and n may be divided as in English: ac-ce-so, in-na-to.

Abbreviations

Spell out names of countries, States, and Provinces, whether town is given or not.

Titles preceding names are usually spelled out, but both forms are permissible; uniformity should be adopted when possible. Observe the following form: el Sr. (or señor) Enrique Palava.

¹ Before l, r, and v, and before the hard vowels a, d, o, u, as well as at the end of words. Before the soft vowels e, i, y, and ö it has what is called the "tje" sound, nearly equivalent to ch.

² Before e, i, j, y, ä, and ö, sh, sk, and stj are pronounced as sh.

The Latin alphabet is universally used in Sweden, with the addition of the letters d, ä, and ö. The a, o, u and d are hard vowels; e, i, y, ä, and ö soft vowels. C, g, w, x, and z are used only in words of foreign origin and in proper names.

Accents

Accents are used only in foreign loan words (résumé) and in certain proper names (Tegnér).

Capitalization

Capitals are used almost as in English: At the beginning of a sentence, in proper names, but not in the case of adjectives derived from them. The names of the months and the days of the week are not capitalized.

Syllabication

A consonant between two vowels usually goes with the following vowel (lä-ra-re); when two or more consonants occur between two vowels, the last consonant generally goes with the following vowel (fladd-ra); sch and sk when used for the sj sound are not separated, but added to the following vowel (mar-schera, männi-ska); ng remains with the preceding vowel unless n and g belong to different parts of a compound word. Compound words are divided according to their component parts.

Punctuation

The rules of punctuation are essentially the same as in English, although the Swedish punctuation is perhaps somewhat closer, the comma, especially, being used more freely.

Articles

Plural	-na (rarely -ne)	-na, -a, -en

The postpositive article, which is suffixed to the noun, is always used when the noun is definite in sense; the prepositive article is used together with the postpositive article when the noun is modified by an adjective.

Remarks for transliterators

The language is practically phonetic; there being no silent letters, diphthongs or compound consonants, each is invariably the symbol of but one sound.

The soft vowels are e, ö, ü, and i.

The soft ğ cannot be used as the initial or final letter of a word.

The y is not always a consonant, as it sometimes takes the place of i, usually at the end of a word.

When the circumflex is used over a, i, or u, the sound is long, but â and û after g, k, and t are used for softening these consonants.

There is no silent e in the Latin transliteration, nor has the Turkish a vowel sound corresponding to a in man, o in not, e in her, or i in bird.

An infallible table for transliterating from the Arabic into the New Turkish is out of the question, as only a thorough knowledge of the Turkish will enable one to determine whether a vowel is hard or soft, or whether words are correctly spelled or pronounced.

Accent

There is practically no accent, the long vowels replacing, to some extent, the accent in other languages, but without stress.

Capitalization

Capitalize proper names, both personal and geographic, but lower case the latter when used adjectively.

Capitalize the first word of a sentence, but lower case, as a rule, after a colon.

Capitalize the name of the Deity as also the first word in a line of poetry.

Syllabication

Divide on a vowel, but diphthongs must not be separated.

A consonant goes with the following vowel, but if there be two consonants, they are separated.
